

My dear Willie:

July 5th 1948

I was with real leaders I read your fairminded words as leader of the Liberal party. I felt much as I did when we left "Woodville"! I was very glad you said what you did about Lanier's stone. Someone else should have said it many years ago. I was pleased to see in this morning's Globe, an editorial agreeing with your remarks. So many people think Lanier's stone belongs to the Liberal party, and it is well to let them know in
