The name Dawson, came next. (could not recall.) for him. - Her father, your father told us to come see you. I said I knew so glad, I asked if he knew what I had seen. He said no. I said his and asked if he remembered him. He said indeed he did, and laughed, I asked if he knew who was with him & he said yes Fisher. I told him my father had given me the message he had given him. I said we then spoke of his wedding. We were being together. He said I have a message I want to give you 'to continue to the end, don't of the draft' don't doubt about freedom people, but we didn't need us to be ~~there~~ that way. I asked if might tell people about not having helped us to secure the land at Chagomere. He said we must 'keep your own counsel' (give us information, things that belong to yourself are sacred, 'whoever don't know must keep them. He said we don't be too soft, what I did for you I did because I admired & respected you. I added I agreed to do your admiration alone some come to be useless. I respected every hair in your head. I said I was secret about what people might think in the said I wish you had a little more ^{of the} 'fall & zigzag' - you only worry - of that man Ogunmola. We will come to his end yet then people admire you. But listen to them ^{hate them} let it rest at that. My love little more to do - the kind of thing they speak of must do, how would you
