

Le Monde Illustré has succeeded to L'Opinion Publique. It is the only serious illustrated weekly in existence. Its scope is within the bounds of literature and history. Complete sets are not seldom to be found.

254. "L'Opinion Publique".—Montreal, 1870-1884. 14 vols., sm. folio, complete set. $85.00

L'Opinion Publique is the first illustrated French-Canadian weekly published in Canada. It contains a summary of the political events of the week, some historical, poetical and literary writings by the most celebrated French-Canadian writers.

Complete sets of this weekly are becoming very scarce and pretty much sought for by Librarians and Book-Lovers.

225. "Le Samedi".—Montreal, 1889-1904. 15 vols., 4to., complete set. $3 00

Complete set of this illustrated weekly of literature and humour.

256. "Les Soirées Canadiennes".—Recueil de littérature nationale. Québec. 1860-1865. 5 vols., 8vo., half calf. $30.00

Rare. One of the most important by its score of brilliant littérateurs and historians who have contributed to it

257. "Revue Canadienne".—Montreal, 1864-1904. Complete set. $200.00

This magazine is the only French-Canadian magazine of some importance ever published in Canada. It contains the best literary and historical writings of French-Canadian authors of repute. The first volumes are very rare and unobtainable.

257a. "L'Abeille du Séminaire de Québec". Québec, 1848-1881. 14 vols., sm., 4to., complete. $100.00
