"He had at the same time objected, as he always had done, to the exclusive distribution of patronage with party views; and maintained the principle, "that office ought in every instance to be given to the man best qualified to render efficient service to the State."

"The Governor subscribes entirely to the Resolutions of the Legislative Assembly of the 3rd September, 1841, and considers any other system of Government, but that which recognizes responsibility to the people, and to the Representative Assembly, as impracticable in this Province."

"If, indeed, by Responsible Government the Gentlemen of the late Council mean that the Council is to be supreme, and the authority of the Governor a nullity, then he cannot agree with them, and must declare his dissent from that perversion of the acknowledged principle."
