

OUR STORY THIS WEEK.

A bunch of Golden Keys is mine,
To make each day with gladness shine.
"Good morning" that's the Golden Key,
That unlocks every day for me.
When evening comes "good night" I say,
And close the door of each new day.
If friends give anything to me
I use the little "thank you" key.
When at the table "if you please,"
I take from off my bunch of keys.
If by mistake some harm I do,
"Excuse me," "beg your pardon," too.
On a golden ring these keys I bind,
This is the motto, "Be ye kind."

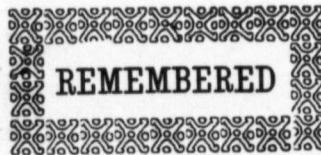

OUR QUESTIONS THIS WEEK.

2. Who were present?
