

The Theological Instructor.

No. 12.

TORONTO, DECEMBER, 1874.

VOL. I.

THE FIRST VOLUME OF THE "INSTRUCTOR."

The first volume is with the present number brought to a close, and the second volume will commence with the January number. We heartily thank our numerous friends and patrons, for the aid they have given us in extending the influence of our Magazine through the length and breadth of the Dominion; and we beg a continuation of their kind attention. We have recently received words of cheer from different quarters. One good loyal brother writes to us on the 6th inst. as follows:

"It gives me great pleasure to know that The Instructor" is to be continued, and I will do all in my power to increase its circulation in my neighbourhood. For my own part I greatly prefer "The Instructor" to any other paper or magazine that comes into my house. The way in which you have used up that Jesuitical society; the brass band of the Pope in this country; I mean the so-called "Church Association" and "the other sects," should command the admiration of every sound churchman who is zealous to maintain the great bulwark of Protestantism in the land. It is with great pleasure I send you enclosed the amount of my subscription for next year. And that you may have strength to uphold the true church against all her inside and outside enemies, is the prayer of your friend and brother in U. L. T."

The above are but specimens of the many kind words we have been receiving from different points in the Dominion and from the United States. We beg to assure our friends that we will spare no pains to make "The Instructor" for the year to come, all that they can desire. It is a Theological Instructor for the family; and as formerly our instructions in every case, shall be drawn from the Holy Scriptures, as the sure word of prophesy.

See terms on 2nd page of the cover.

Another friend, very learned in his profession, expresses great pleasure in renewing his subscription to The Instructor. A U. S. correspondent declares his belief that our reply to the New Heresy is unanswerable, and must be productive of good, and wishes us every success in advocating the true faith of the Gospel through the columns of our Magazine. Another friend from the Diocese of Iowa, U. S., expresses his great satisfaction in the Churchly character of The Instructor.
