Blooming Out of Time. BY KATHERINE E. CONWAY.

Poor flow'rets of the Springtime that bloom'd out in your season.
Unseemly your unfolding 'mid the summer's royal cheer!
The sweet red roses question—and, I ween, with ampiest reason—
"Oh, me' our frail, paie sisters—but wherefore are ye here?"

Hide your wan, wan taces, the raidiant roses shame ye! ush for your belatement as mortals blush for crime! Blus But oh, my shy, sad flow'rets! can I have heart to blame ye?

Must I crush your tender lives out for blooming out of time?

-The Pilot. Buffalo, July 15, 1880.

CABLE NEWS FROM IRE-LAND

Dullin, Dec. 17.—The officer commanding at Birr, King's county, has been ordered to patrol his district nightly with forty soldiers. The police patrol has also been doubled.

A mob of 2,000 persons attempted on Saturday to wreck the residence of Mr. Downing, Justice of the Peace at Bonnicolan, county of Mayo. He had served a writ of ejectment on some of the tenants. The police kept the people back at the point of the bayonet. Downing escaped on a car to Ballina and took the train for Dublin. The police occuppy his resi-

T. D. Sullivan, in speaking at a Mullingar meeting, said that their fathers had faced swords and bullets for Ireland, and Irishmen were not now to be frightened by a suspension of the Habeas Corpus Act, or a proclamation of martial law.

Dublin, Dec. 20.—The report that the Government intended to prohibit all Land League meetings in Queen's County was incorrect. The prohibition only applied to the meetings at Cullabill, which was conthe meetings at Cullohill, which was convened forthe purpose of denouncing a landlord who sought the assistance of the Bankruptcy Court to recover his rents. Two hundred hussars, four hundred infantry and 100 constabulary arrived at Culloon Saturday with an ambulance wagon. The promoters of the meeting issued a notice abandoning the projected meeting, but afterwards issued a card convening a meeting a few miles from Cullohill.
Troops, however, arrived on the ground.
The resident Magistrate forbade the meeting, and said he would disperse it with buckshot or whatever was necessary. The meeting then was finally abandoned. At a meeting in Curragh to hussars stationed close to the platform carried on signals with the camp, which was close at hand. There were also fifty policemen in Dublin Duc 91 The Carette that the county of Limerick is in a disturbed state, requiring additional police. The murder of Mullen was not agrarian, but was merely owing to a quarrel between Mullen and his wife.

Dublin, Dec. 21.—Subpænas for witnesses h ve been issued on both sides in the case of the Traversers.

The Scots Guards arrived to-day. There was no demonstration. At the weekly meeting of the Land League Davitt stated they did not wish anyone to join the League except of their own free will. Davitt condemned indiscriminate "Boycotting."

Cork, Dec. 21.—Judge Fitzgerald, in closing the Assizes to-day, said lawlessness had not diminished since the Assizes began. He received four threatening letters during the Assizes.

London, Dec. 21 .- A battalion of foot has been ordered to get ready and proceed to Ireland from Aldershot.

Dublin, Dec. 21.—At the land meeting to-day the contributions of Bence-Jones to the English press were denounced as slanders. Davitt stated if the Government prohibited all League meetings the Executive would summon its branchas to meet every fortnight, and as that would mean four hundred meetings every second week, it would be interesting to calculate how many troops would be required to suppress those gatherings.

It is in contemplation to take measures during the coming session of Parliament for disarming the peasantry.

The entire garrison of Ireland does not include a single distinctively Irish regi-

The parish priest said that he intends to proceed against Bence-Jones, recently Boycotted, for libel, in consequence of Jones' statement that the priest induced the laborers to quit he employment.

A Dublin correspondent says that the introduction of the Land League into the north of Ireland has set the existing tenant right borderers, who have been for some time quiescent, again in motion. In some districts two concurrent movements are now in progress, one of which is distinct from the League, although agreeing, to some extent, with its principles.

The printers of placards for League meetings throughout the country love received directions to attend the trial of the

She was taken in tow, disabled, by a tug, and brought to Limerick, where she is now under repair. Her cargo was necessarily removed, and the arms and ammunition were taken to the Queen's stores under a military guard.

Buckshot is still being manufactured for the Irish constabulary, and it is thought the military will also be supplied with buckshot. A despatch from Dublin says that the ship Juno is the same vessel from which arms were stolen sometime ago in Cork harbor. The ship has been knocking around for six months on her way to the United States. The authorities will keep charge of her until the arms have been re-

Several persons have been arrested for Boycotting."
The Land Commissioners have concluded their inventory and stated the result to Gladstone. It is understood that their opinions are divided. Some of the Protestant farmers of the north are making a determined stand against the Land League. The military stationed at Cork have been ordered to suppress the land meeting proposed at Kanturk on the 2nd of January.

Messrs. T. Milburn & Co. Dear Sir,— I have been troubled with Dyspepsia for seven years or more, and was so bad that I had often to get up in the night and dissolve soda in water and take it before I could go to sleep. I saw your Burdock Blood Bitters advertised and I got a bottel and took one teaspoonful three times a day the first day, and it did not help me; then I took three tablespoonful three times a day for four days, and that gave me great relief. I have taken one bottle and think I am cured of dyspepsia or sour stomach, as it is sometimes called. I was also troubled with a slight attack of inflammation of the kidneys, and I think the Burdock Blood Bitters helped me of that. If I could only get another bottle I think it would cure me of that terrible pain in my back, but can't get it here. With thanks for the benefit already received,

I remain, yours, JONATHAN TULLER. Mothers who are started at the hour of midnight by that ominous hoarse cough of your little ones, what would you not give for a prompt and certain means of relief from that dread destroyer of your children, croup? Such a means you may have for the trifling cost of 25 cents. It is Hagyard's Yellow Oil, the great household remedy for all inflammatory and painful diseases. Do not rest over night again without it.

Croup can be cured in five minutes by the combined use of Hagyard's Pectoral Balsom and Yellow Oil. Indeed, Yellow oil is in itself a specific used internally and applied outwardly; but to heal and strengthen the lungs the Pectoral Balsam may be used with great success. Both of these matchless remedies should be kept in every house. To be obtained of all

By a simple system of registered number Messrs. Tuckett & Billings can tell which of their workmen manipulated any particular plug of their "Myrtle Navy" tobacco, if the caddy which contained it is known. Should any imperfection be found in any plug, therefore they can at ce single out the workman-from among their 300 hands—who is responsible for it. This system works so thoroughly that the complaints do not average one for every 200,000 plugs turned out.

Take-it-easy and Live-Long are brothers, and are related to Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has lengthened many a life.

Rheumatism is one of the most prevalent and obstinate diseases incident to our climate, but it has been disarmed of its terrors by that invincible remedy, Hag-yard's Yellow Oil, an external and internal medicine whose application is so varied and useful in all painful and inflam-matory diseases and wounds, as to render it a household necessity to all who suffer from pain.

What a multitude of martyrs suffer what a multitude of marryrs suffer from headache! either of the nervous or bilious form. The principal cause of the distress is a disordered stomach and liver, for which Burdock Blood Bitters is a positive specific. It cures constipation of the bowels, eliminates disease of the kidneys, arouses the secretions to a healthy action, purifies the blood, regulates the liver and strengthens the debilitated system. When the poisoning matter is constantly falling upon the lungs, Pulmonary Consumption is most certain to follow. Expel the morbid secretion from the bronchial pipes by Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, the great throat and lung healer. Sold by all dealers at 25 cents per bottle.

D. E. McDonald in notes of a recent visit to Ireland, says:-"There exists much genuine, simple and rightly directed faith and reverence, even among the most humble and illiterate. The Lord is spoken of with bated breath and in tones of love that Protestants would do well to imitate. An oleograph copy of a great picture, representing the Savior crowned with thorns, was recently exhibited in a shop window in Limerick. A crowd of admirers gathered round it; presently an old market woman came down the street. Her eye caught the picture at once, and she remained riveted to the spot where she stood; tears rolled down her checks.
