Hamilton, Ont., Feb. 20.—A fire was discovered in the Bank of Montreal this morning about 6 a. m., and an alarm was given. The fire originated in the waste paper in the basement. The clerk in charge for the night, Mr. Christian, was aroused by the smell of smoke and proceeded to awaken the family of Mr. Travers, the Manager, and gave the alarm. The smoke passed up through the partitions rapidly and nearly suffocated some of the inmates on the upper flat. On the of the inmates on the upper flat. On the arrival of the brigade the bank was so full open before the water could be used. The fire was speedily got under control. Prin-cipal damage by smoke and water, the fire running up inside the north wall and burning a strip. The building was formerly owned by the Merchants' Bank and sold to the Bank of Montreal. It is not expected the fittings and office furni-ture will be much the worse. The furni-ture and effects of Mr. Traverse, the manager, who resided above the bank, is considerably damaged. The amount of the loss is not known yet, but it is fully

Gas Fitting.—We understand that Jas. W. Lothian has commenced business for himself at 331 Richmond street. We are sure that those who favor this new as-pirant for public patronage with orders will not be disappointed. He is prepared to do everything in his line in a workman-like manner, and will no doubt give those who call on him every satisfaction.

There is an advertisement in our colums to which we take much pleasure colums to which we take much pleasure in reffering to our readers, because we believe in it and conscientiously and heartily recommend it. We refer to Hall's Hair Benewer. We remember many cases in our midst of old and middle aged people who formerly wore grey hair, or whose locks were thin and taded, but who now have presentable head views and with no have presentable head pieces, and with no little pride announce to their friends that they haven't a grey hair in their heads. It is a pardonable pride, and the world would be better off, if there was more of it, for when the aged make themselves attractive to others they are more certain to win and retain the esteem and respect to which a burthen of well-spent years enitles them.

Try Hall's Hair Renewer if age or disease has thinned or whitened your locks and you will thank us for our advice—Pan-Handle News, Wellsburg, W. Va.
