the question naturally arises why should not that same precedent be followed in the matter of choosing a member of parliament.

The most enthusiastic of Clarke's boosters do not have the audacity to claim for their candidate any, of the high statesmanlike qualities that are represented in the person of the Hon. James Hamilton Ross, nor have they yet advanced the idea that Clarke would be able to exercise any favorable influence at Ottawa in behalf of the Yukon.

They mercly raise the old, wornout cry that Clarke is against the government, which slogan constitutes
