MARRIED AT MELVERN SQUARE

An interesting event took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Isiah Palmer, Melvern Square, on Wednesday June 13th. The occasion was the marriage of their daughter Myrtle, to Mr. Harry Bruce Vaughn of Sheffield Mills. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. E. Roop. The bride was attended by her sister.

Mrs. Vaughn was a very popular young lady and will be much missed at Melvern. Previous to the marriage about thirty of her lady friends gathered at the home of Mrs. H. F. East and gave her a miscellaneous shower of useful and ornamental articles. After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn came to their future home at Sheffield Mills.

MATRIMONIAL WHITMAN-SPURR

A very quiet wedding was that recorded in another column of a highly esteemed gentleman of this town Mr. John F. Whitman, at Upper Canard, is well known here having been a resident for a considerable time during the life of the late Mrs. Louisa Whitman, mother of the groom, and she will be cordially welcomed once more to the circles of Annapolis Royal. She is a sister of A. T. Spurr who is now at the front has also other well known relatives in this vicinity. It is a curious coincidence that the wedding was the first solemnized by Rev. Mr. Mellor after his acceptance of the rectorship of this parish and was also the first he entered on the first page of a new registry book. The happy couple left at once for a trip along the Western shore and were reported at the Grand in Yarmouth last Saturday. Annapolis Spectator.

PARKER - HENDERSON.

On Tuesday evening at 7.30 o'clock there was a pretty wedding at their residence of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Henderson, 11 Preston road, when their daughter, Miss Mabelle Elizabeth Henderson, became the bride of Lewis Willard Parker, of Truro, Nova Scotia. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George H. Hubbard, acting pastor of the Prospect Hill Congregational church. The wedding march was played by Miss Lillian Scriven.

The bride was gowned in white liberty satin with pearl trimmings and chantilly lace tunic. She wore a tulle veil caught with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas and lilies of the valley. The matron of honour, Mrs. Andrew F. Handy, of Medford Hillside, was attired in radium silk trimmed with chantilly lace and carried Killarney roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Jean Ross and Miss Mildred Torrey, both of Somerville wore blue marquisette over blue silk and carried pink sweet peas. The bridegroom was attended by Andrew F. Handy Hillside, and the ushers were: Chester B. Raymond and Ralph S. Nealey, both of Somerville.

A reception was held from 8 to 10.30 o'clock when a large number of friends tendered congratulations to the newly married couple, who were assisted in receiving by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Henderson, and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Parker, of Canning, N.S. Mrs. Henderson wore heliotrope chapeau combined with orchid tulle. Mrs. Parker mother of the bridegroom was gowned in old blue crepe de chine and chiffon. The house was adorned with palms, sweet peas and roses. Hicks served a collation and a trio furnished music. Many handsome gifts were received, including substantial sums of money.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker left on an extended trip through the Provinces, the bride throwing her bouquet among her friends as she departed. They will be at home after October 1 at Truro, N.S., where the bridegroom is director and secretary of a wholesale saddlery house. He was educated at the Maritime Business College, Halifax, N.S. The bride is a graduate of the Somerville English High School, class of 1910, and a member of the Alpha Phi Club. Somerville Mass. Journal June 8.

MILITARY DANCE

On Thursday evening of last week a very enjoyable dance was held at the Arena.

The Committee in charge was the Misses Edith Coleman, Helen Graham and Alice Wickwire assisted by Sergeants McHugh and Collier of the 11th Draft C.A.S.C. who are now in Camp at Aldershot. Mesdames Graham, Botsford, and Tully acted as chaperons and did their utmost to see that the young people enjoyed the evening.

In spite of the fact that there were other social events on the same evening, about forty couples were present. At first it was thought that the music was going to be disappointing as the strains of the Victrola would not penetrate to the four corners of the hall, but this difficulty was overcome by the 11 Draft, C. A. S. C. boys who sent to camp for their modest orchestra and all went on merrily.

The feature of the evening was a "Paul Jones" which was encored again and again. About eleven o'clock a dainty luncheon was served by the ladies. The C. A. S. C. boys again came to the fore with a feature cake made by their own chef which was very artistically designed 11th Draft, C. A. S. C. in white on the Chocolate icing. About 12.30 this very enjoyable event was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem.

Among those present were: Mesdames, Graham, Botsford, Tully, Clarke, Hardy, Misses Coleman, Graham, Wickwire, Nixon, Publicover, Ross, Shea, Corbin, Hardy, Clarke, Lloyd, Pike, Campbell, Baird, Moore, McDougall, Kinsman, Roscoe, Dodge, Foster, Messrs. Graham and Parker, Officers and men of the C. E. F. from Aldershot Camp and many others.
