"SOCKS FOR THE SOLDIERS."

Mrs. C. E. Bently has just donated to the Truro Red Cross one hundred pairs of socks. This handsome gift furnished evidence, if such could possibly be needed, that our most intelliger and loyal citizens fully appreciate the continual urgency of the well known alogan; "Socks for the soldiers."

Ever since the formation of our local Red Cross Mrs. Bently, notwithstanding her indifferent health, has been a generous supporter of the Society and became one of its earliest life members. —Truro News.

Military Service Act, 1917

Explanatory Announcement by the Minister of Justice

THE MILITARY SERVICE ACT has received the assent of the Governor-General and is now part of the law of the land. It will be performed accordingly, and the particulan and good sense of the people can be relied upon to support it. Resistance to its enforcement, however, by word or act must and will be repressed, as resistance to any other law in force insust be.

Reinforcements under the Military Service Act immediately required is the intention of the Government immediately to exercise the r which the Act confers and to call out men for military service in to provide reinforcements for the Canadian forces. This is necessince the military authorities report that the reserve available of ht for reinforcement will shortly be exhausted unless this step be

Proclamation will announce the day

A proclamation will issue calling out the bachelors and widowers referred to and fixing a day on or before which every man must report for service to the military authorities unless he has before that day made an application for exemption.

How to apply for exemption

Ottawa, September 11, 1917.

Applications for exemption may be made by written notice on forms which will be available at every port office, and will be treasmitted free of postage. They will not, however, be required to be made in this way, but may be presented by the applicants in person to the exemption tribunals. The cases of those who have given written notice in advance will take precedence, and appearance in person will therefore be likely to involve considerably more inconvenience and delay to the men concerned, so that it is recommended that advantage be generally taken of the facilities for written application.

Exemption Tribunals in all parts of Canada

The local exemption ribunals will be constituted with the least d possible, consistent with this selection of representative individual compose them, and the instruction of the intembers in their duties. The will be more than one thousand of such tribunals throughout Canada, consisting of two members, one of whom will be nominated by any consisting of two members, one of whom will be nominated by any consisting Courts. Every effort will be made by the wide distribution tribunals, and by provision where nocessary for their stitling in more of one place, to minimise the inconvenience to which men will be purely obtaining the disposition of their cases.

A Registrar will be appointed in each Province, who will be nat in the proclamation and to whom enquiries may be addressed. Bryvincial Registrar will transmit to the appropriate tribunals the ingrations for exemption which have been submitted in advance of the fings, and men who have sont these in will not be required to attend thousals until notified to do so. Other applicants should attend a sonally on the tribunal without notice.

Facilities for immediate medical examination.

Immediately upon the issue of the proclamation, medical board at at every mobilization sentre for the examination of men who a for service or who, subject to their sight within the time limited to a for exemption, desire to have their physical fitness determined in or allay any doubt at to their physical condition, or to know definitely in advance whether there is a possibility of their services being requestion of the physical through the process of physical unitsess issued by these Medical Boards we accepted without any further investigation by exemption tribunals they sit. Men found physically fit who have not reported for as may never their easy possibility of their preceding or including even their physical condition if dissatisfied with the Me Board's conclusion.

Notice to join the colors

As reinforcements are required, notice to report to the nearest mobilization centre will be given from time to time to the men found liable and passed as fit for service. Disobedience of such notice will render the offender liable to punishment, but punishment for failure to report for military service, or to report subsequently for duty when called upon, will be imposed ordinarily by the civil magistrates; offenders, however, will remain liable for the performance of their military dutes notwithstanding any civil punishment which may be imposed and will be liable to military punishment in cases in which civil proceedings are not taken.

Watch for the Proclamation

Notice of the day appointed for the making of a claim for exemption or for report for military service will be published as widely as possible, but, as no personal notice can be given uptil the individuals called our have so reported themselves or claimed exemption, men possibly concerned are warned to inform themselves with regard to the day fixed, since neglect may involve the loss by them of important privileges and
