WORLD OF SPORT

BOWLING

London, Ont., July 22.—The seventh annual tournament of the Western Ontario Bowling Association commenced at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, on the lawns of the London Bowling Club. From present indications the event will be the most successful in every sense of any tournament yet held by the Association, for the attendance is greater, the quality of the bowling better, and the good fellowship "twist" man and man more in evidence than ever before, which is saying a very great deal.

No less than forty-three different rinks took part in the preliminary and first rounds of the contest for the Labatt trophy, which were completed yesterday afternoon. Of these thirteen were local rinks. The remaining thirty represented the following cities and towns of Western Ontario: Clinton, Ridgeway, Peterborough, Walkerville, Seaforth, Woodstock, St. Thomas, Dresden, Paris, Mitchell, Aylmer, Brussels, Strathroy, Goderich, Brampton and Blenheim. The quality of the bowling is indicated by the close scores, hardly a single rink being able to make a runaway race of it.

All three Chatham rinks were beaten in the first round and will not be able to enter the second round. J. J. Sowerby's rink, which won the tankard last year, was beaten in the preliminary round yesterday by the Chatter rink from Walkerville. There is now no chance of Chatham's winning the trophy. The Chatham rinks scores:

Chatham—L. E. Tillson, G. B. Merritt, A. H. VonGanten, J. Sowerby, skip—19.

Walkerville—J. Radford, E. O'Neill, F. J. White, W. Chatter, skip—24.

Goderich—R. G. Reynolds, P. Kelly, E. Gordon, Jno. Galt, skip—18.

Chatham—R. G. Fleming, W. E. Merritt, A. E. Jewett, Dr. Bray, skip—17.

London—A. Tillmann, C. H. Ward, Dr. Alexander, J. D. Tyler, skip—25.

Chatham—A. S. McKellar, J. E. Mitton, D. A. Hutchison, W. Taylor, skip—20.

A BIG FIGHT

San Francisco, July 22.—Manager Delaney announces that Jim Jeffries is in the finest fettle, and will climb through the ropes Friday night for a reputation.

Jeffries is alternating in his days of heavy work. To avoid the stale condition he goes at his work like a trojan on one day and on the next relaxes somewhat. This method he finds agrees with him, and it keeps him on a vigorous edge.

Jeffries has taken on nine pounds in 36 hours, but this is not extraordinary for a man of his general physique. He now weighs in the neighborhood of 225 pounds. He expects to tip the beam at or about 217 when he fights.

Jeffries will continue his training in this city to-day, doing road work in the park and light gymnasium exercises at the Olympic club.

The canvas covered pavilion in which the fighting will take place is nearing completion.

The platform of the ring is in place, and a sort of wooden canopy to hold the lights has been built over it. The ring is of the usual shape, with all the seats built on the ground except the gallery, which consists of eight tiers of boards similar to the bleachers at a ball ground, rising at an angle so that all occupants an uninterrupted view of the encounter. To economize space as much as possible the seats have been placed very close together, and the distance from the centre of the ring to the most distant part of the enclosure is only 57 feet.

FITZ NEVER BETTER.

San Francisco, July 22.—Geo. Dawson, who supervised the training of Bob Fitz, is more at ease in his condition and immediately upon his arrival turned to George Siller and said: "What do you think of my pointing to Bob?"

Fitz indeed looked the picture of health and a highly conditioned athlete. His skin was clear, his eyes bright and his general appearance all that Dawson claimed for him.

The veteran is completely loaded down with confidence. He cannot see how he can lose and talks as if Jeff was the easiest proposition he ever tackled in his life.

"All I want," he said, "is a clean-cut, fair, stand-up fight. I am giving weight and his weight in weight—quite a handicap, you must acknowledge—and I do not want that big fellow to pull and haul me all over the

Although the medicine business should, above all, be carried on with the utmost conscientiousness and sense of responsibility, the unfortunate fact is that in no other is there so much humbug and deception. The anxieties of the sick and their relatives are traded upon in the most shameful manner; impossible cures are promised; many preparations are also utterly worthless, and some are positively dangerous to health.

As a consequence, all proprietary remedies are regarded with suspicion by many people, and the good suffer for the bad.

For these reasons we announce that our proprietors are the principal shareholders in ring. Every second he lays the weight of his big carcass on me will have its effect, especially if the fight should go a long distance. I do not want him to hang on me and deprive me of my strength. I am going into the ring to fight and not to act as a meat hook for him to hang his weight on. I am supposedly the weaker man, and do not care to have my handicap increased by carrying him around upon my shoulders; neither do I want him to bother me into submission with his bulky shoulders.

"He has a trick of slipping blows by ducking his head in and toward an opponent's left and butting his left shoulder into his body. These shoulder blows, for they are nothing else, are more effective than some blows delivered with the gloves, and I have instructed Referee Graneey to keep his weather eye open regarding them. Of course, I know that at times those shoulder blows, or butts, or whatever you care to call them, are purely accidental and cannot be avoided, but when they come too often they are intentional and, therefore, are foul. Graneey says he will caution Jeff about this trick, and I will see to it before I put up my hands that he has done so.

"I know I can win with an even break—that is, in a fair, manly, stand-up fight, according to the strict interpretation of the Queensberry rules—and I am going to demand the rules be strictly enforced, even to the size of the ring, which must be 24 feet square."

Graneey, in speaking of the rules, said he had had a heart-to-heart talk with Fitz and Jeff, and that they both had agreed to box fair.

"Jeff," he said, "does not care to argue the rule question, saying he would leave that to Bob. What suits Fitz will suit me, is about all Jim would say about the rules. I do not anticipate any trouble. They both understand the conditions under which they agreed to fight, and I am sure they will live up to them. There will be no hitting with one arm free, neither of the men cares about that style of fighting. I will, however, permit the man who is not holding to smash the one that is until he compels him to let go. When they fall into a clinch, which they naturally will despite the rule, there shall be no hugging or wrestling. I will order them to break, and the man who don't obey my order will get a severe call down, and numerous repetitions of the infringement of that rule are apt to cause the disqualification of the offender. They are both strong men and if they are not inclined to break when commanded, I am sure I could not pull them apart, and furthermore, do not intend to believe, though it will be a clean fight and easy to handle, at least I hope so."

Jeff would not argue the rules, and laughed at the idea of his being compelled to hang on, or hug, or use his shoulder as a battering ram, or to use any other unfair methods to defeat Fitz.

"I can hit hard enough with my hands to win, and do not have to bring my wrist or forearm into play to settle a man, as Fitz. He hit me over the eye with his wrist at Coney Island and I caught him with my gloved hand. I'll do it again."

Ghosts would frighten many people who are not afraid of germs. Yet the germ is a real danger. If this microscopic animal could be magnified to a size in proportion to its deadliness it would show like a giant python, or fire breathing dragon. The one fact to remember is that the germ is powerless to harm the body when the blood is pure. It is far easier to keep the germ out than to drive it out than to drive it out after it obtains a hold in the system. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the most powerful and perfect of blood purifying medicines. It increases the quantity as well as the quality of the blood, and enables the body to resist disease, or to throw it off if disease has obtained a footing in some weak organ. Wherever the digestion is impaired, the nutrition of the body is diminished, for the blood is made from the food which is eaten, and half digested food cannot supply the body with blood in quantity and quality adequate to its needs. For this condition there is no remedy equal to "Golden Medical Discovery." It cures ninety-eight out of every hundred persons who give it a fair trial. When there is constipation, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will promptly relieve and permanently cure.

BOGUS CHEQUE ARTIST CAPTURED. Toronto, July 22.—The police caught to-night a clever swindler, who has been making a fine thing out of the bogus cheque business both in Toronto and throughout Ontario. His habit was to order goods from business houses, giving the name and address of some citizen of reputation, and asking that they be delivered at his home. Then he paid for the goods by check, getting often $15 to $20 in change. Next day, when the goods were delivered there was trouble, and there was more when the check came back dishonored. The swindler gives his name as W. L. Wood and his residence as Detroit. About twenty cases are piled up against him, and eight checks were found in his possession. He is believed to be an expert American confidence man, who was enjoying a vacation in Canada. His photo has been sent to all the leading police centres, and his measurements on the Bertillon system.
