BOMB DOES DEADLY WORK

The Death Dealing Missile Thrown in Premier Stolypin's House

THIRTY WERE KILLED

St. Petersburg, Aug. 27.—Twenty-eight persons are dead and 30 others wounded as the result of the dastardly attempt to assassinate Premier Stolypin with a bomb while he was holding a public reception at his country house at Aptekersky Island. The Premier was slightly wounded on the face and neck by flying splinters.

Among the dead are:

The Premier's 15-year-old daughter, who had both legs broken by the explosion and subsequently succumbed to her injuries.

Gen. Zamaetin, the Premier's personal secretary.

M. Khovostev, former Governor of the Province of Penza.

Col. Federoff, chief of the Premier's personal guards.

Prince Nakladge.

Court Chamberlain Davidoff.

Court Chamberlain Veroln.

Aide Doubasoff, and Four women and two children; a police officer and several guards and servants.

The wounded include M. Stolypin's three-year-old son, who is seriously, though not fatally injured, and a number of persons prominent in the social and official worlds.

Two conspirators killed, two wounded.

Of the four conspirators who engineered the outrage, two were killed with their victims, while the third, who acted as coachman for the party, and the fourth, who remained inside the carriage, were badly wounded, and now are in the St. Peter and St. Paul fortress.

Whether the assassins, who entered the crowded reception hall, threw the bomb or accidentally dropped it probably never will be known as all the immediate eye-witnesses were killed.

The tremendous force of the explosion absolutely blew out the front of the Premier's residence and carried away the ceilings above, and the floors beneath and the walls of the adjoining rooms.

Persons literally were blown to pieces. Those who were not killed instantly were horribly maimed or mangled and all the others present were prostrated by the shock.

Miraculous Escape.

The Premier's escape was miraculous, for only a moment before the explosion he had stepped inside his study at the rear of the salon to speak to Prince Shakhovskiy. Although he was not slightly injured, he is completely prostrated by the calamity.

Later details show that the authors of the outrage drove up to the Premier's residence after the list of visitors had been closed. The servants refused them admission, after which they attempted to force an entry to the house.

A struggle ensued at the entrance to the anteroom adjoining the reception room, and during the course of which the terrorists disguised as a gendarme dropped a bomb, which exploded, destroying the anteroom, the adjoining guardroom, part of the reception room, and also the balcony of the first floor.

The Premier, who was receiving visitors in a private room, was not injured, his daughter and son, who were sitting in the balcony, were wounded. The principal loss of life occurred in the anteroom.

Came From Moscow.

As a result of the enquiry it was learned Saturday night that the man who threw the bomb came here from Moscow via Wladivostok.

He was seen in the morning at the hotel in Muravskaya street, and Saturday hired a carriage in which they visited one of the open air summer theatres prior to going to Premier Stolypin's.

The chief of the assassins, whose body is now guarded by troops, is apparently about 25 years of age. He wore a brand new uniform, beneath which he had on a civilian vest of very dirty linen.

Two or Three Explosions.

At the moment of the explosion, M. Stolypin was escorted with two marshals of the nobility, who declare that there were two or three explosions.

M. Stolypin's first question was for the members of the family. He himself freed his children from the pile of debris with which they were covered. Later in the evening he visited them twice in the hospital.

The havoc wrought by the explosion is indescribable. Bodies were so torn or mangled as to make identification impossible, some of them headless, armless or legless lying among the blood dripping wreckage.

Bodies Converted Into Public.

When the Associated Press Saturday evening succeeded in securing permission to pass the cavalry guarding the approaches to the house, the dead and wounded already had been removed to a neighboring hospital, but by the light of flaring torches the police still were picking out from the wreckage bits of flesh and placing them on towels for transportation by ambulance to the morgue.

At the hospital the correspondent saw frantic attendants trying to arrange the shattered bodies into some semblance of human form for identification by weeping and wailing relatives outside.

The terrorist who carried the explosive into the house was literally converted into pulp by the force of the explosion. Inside the gendarme officers' coat, which he had on, was found the death sentence of Premier Stolypin that he had tried to execute.

The police refuse to make public the contents of this document. What was left of the revolutionists three revolvers, two of them automatic pistols, were found.

A Dynamite Bomb.

According to statements of the survivors, none of the overpowering fumes accompanying the explosion, whether of dynamite or picric acid, were noticed after the explosion, and it is thought the bomb was charged with camphor and dynamite, which are extensively used in loading the revolutionists' bombs, and which explosive was employed in the assassination of Alexander II. Among its advantages is the fact that it is safer to handle than ordinary dynamite, and it is also more powerful.

The tragedy created a tremendous sensation here, and extra editions of the newspapers were sold in the streets until midnight. In the clubs where officials and officers gather the most intense indignation prevails, and the prediction was freely made that the revolutionists would pay dearly for such senseless crimes, and no doubt was entertained that their only effect would be to drive the Government to more severe methods of repression.

Part of War of Retaliation.

From information obtained from the revolutionary sources, it is certain that the crime was committed by the fighting organization of the Social Revolutionists in retaliation for the war which the Government has been waging against them.

Since M. Stolypin's accession to the Premiership over 1,000 of their numbers have been arrested, 400 in St. Petersburg alone, and many of these have been deported.

To fight this crusade the fighting organization, which is composed of a wing known as the "Makhists," and who believe in setting up a purely socialist state upon the ruins of the autocracy, have deliberately entered upon a duel with the Government, such as that which characterized the famous fight of the Nihilists in the late seventies, and which ended in the assassination of Emperor Alexander II. All the members of the organization had due notice that Saturday's attempt on the Premier would be made and went into hiding.

Was Saved 10 Days Before.

It has become known that an attempt upon M. Stolypin was frustrated ten days ago by the discovery of the beginning of a subterranean passage from the wall of the Grenadier Church adjoining his residence. The mining of palaces and residences formerly was a favorite method of the Nihilists, but has not been used of recent years.

Emperor Nicholas, when apprised of Saturday's disaster, sent his personal congratulations to Premier Stolypin on his escape, and the Cabinet Ministers and many members of the diplomatic corps tendered expressions of sympathy.

News received here from Peterhof is to the effect that feeling runs high against the revolutionaries in court circles.

When M. Stolypin accepted the Premiership, he was perfectly conscious of his personal danger. One of his remarks at a recent interview was: "I have no doubt that attempts will be made upon my life, but I shall not be deterred from my duty, and I shall be restored and stability established in Russia before they are successful."

PALMA'S CALL TO ARMS

Havana, Aug. 27.—A despatch received here from Las Cruces, Santa Clara Province, says the mayor, the police, nearly all the councilmen and officials of the town, together with all the rural guards stationed there, and 300 citizens, have joined the insurgents.

Senator Prias of Cienfuegos has received a telegram reporting a similar state of affairs at Trinidad.

Where Guerra's Force Is.

The force under Guerra is concentrating among the Bolondron hills between San Juan de Mariluz and Guanes, in Pinar del Rio Province. In the meantime hundreds of families accounted to be friends of Guerra peacefully are working their rice and tobacco fields in that region. The inhabitants of the district who have not belligerent inclinations do not appear to care whether Guerra or Col. Avalos, the commander of the rural guards, eventually prevails.

Rodriguez says he is not aware of the exact numerical strength of Guerra's force, but he does not believe it totals anything like 2,000 men. He apparently is confident that the present campaign will result in disaster to Guerra.

No Rovers.

The Government has not suffered a reverse of any consequences, and Saturday it chronicled further victories. The principal of these came as a result of an attack by 150 mounted rural guards under Major Gomez upon Remoso's band of 200 insurgents at Cascasale, near Santa Rosa. This engagement came at the end of a three days' pursuit of the enemy.

A force brought the Government forces suddenly upon the revolutionists. After the first exchange of shots the rural guards chased the enemy, who dispersed and fled and inflicted severe punishment with machetes. A report of this occurrence, received by Gen. Rodriguez Saturday night, says at least twenty of the revolutionists were killed or wounded.

Palma's Call to Arms.

Havana, Aug. 27.—President Palma has officially called for volunteers to compose a national militia of infantry and cavalry and to co-operate with the Government forces under the command of the chief of the rural guards.

The pay of chiefs of battalions and regiments will be $200 a month, adjutants $125 a month, captains $100 a month, and soldiers $2 a day.

All volunteers disabled will receive full pay during the period of disturbance, and in the event of their death the money will go to their dependent heirs.

Shipment of Arms.

New York, Aug. 27.—Arms and ammunition for the Cuban Government were shipped from this city Saturday for Havana on board the Ward line steamship Mexico. The steamer had stowed away in her hold 15,000 Remington repeating rifles, 800,000 rounds of ammunition and six gatling rapid fire guns for the use of President Palma's forces.

The steamer Kansas, which will sail next Thursday, will carry 3,000,000 rounds of ammunition and 5,000 Remingtons for the Cuban Government.

The Associated Press is informed that the Government had decided to issue Sunday an amnesty of thirty days, under which those persons now bearing arms who return peacefully to their homes will be pardoned.

CLAIM $25,000 DAMAGE.

Writes Alleged High Constable Bargained For Arrest.

Toronto, Aug. 27.—Writes claiming $25,000 damages for false arrest will be issued to-day against Henry Peppier of Hanover and High Constable Patrick Heffernan of Walkerton, and possibly others. This action is taken by R. L. Henderson as a result of the court proceedings at Walkerton on Friday in the charges brought by Peppier of theft and false pretences. It is claimed that Peppier and Heffernan connived to use the criminal courts as a means to secure the return of certain moneys.

Peppier is said to have made admissions which implicate Heffernan in illegal proceedings. According to his evidence, he had mentioned to the high constable that he had invested his money in the bearings company, but that he was afraid he was going to lose on his investment. Then Heffernan is alleged to have replied: "Well, you put it in my hands and we will get your money back." The understanding is that he was to secure a consideration if Peppier was successful. Peppier said he did not want Henderson punished; he simply wanted his $1,300 back.
