DAMAGED LINEN TABLE CLOTHS

WEDNESDAY

We were fortunate in securing from a Belfast manufacturer, a very choice lot of Bleached Damask Table Cloths. They called them seconds, but on examining them carefully, we find in many cases no imperfection whatever. True, a few of them show a skip in the wear or a small oil spot, but they are as a whole, the most perfect lot of DAMAGED CLOTHS we have ever handled. On Wednesday we will offer them at 33 per cent. discount on regular prices for perfect clothes. This will afford you an opportunity of securing extra quality table cloths at "Bargain Prices."

The case of Rex vs. Jos. Shute was the first taken up this morning and it occupied all day.

This is a case where a man named Shute, of Zone, is charged with assaulting John Harris with intent to do serious bodily harm. It was shown, according to the evidence given, that Shute and Harris had a long-tanding feud over some hay. A MILD CLIMATE

Anyone traveiling between here and Toronto these days will be surprised at the difference in the temperature along the route. White we are having comparatively mild weather, the eastern cities and towns are experiencing quite a pro-

towns are experiencing quite a prolonged cold snap.

At Guelph, Galt and Woodstock
they are having extremely cold weathey. Those who came in on the C.
P. R. International Limited this morning commented on the tact that though the interior of the car was kept well heated, the windows of the coaches were covered with a thick coating of frost on the run between Toronic and London. This quickly disappeared after London was passed. There is good sleighing all along the route wist of London, and nearly all of the streams are completely frozen over.

It is not the simplest task in the world, but it is a work for which Mr. Scott has shown himself well qualified.
