TAKES HIS STAND AGAINST LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Senator Johnson insists on the introduction of a plank on the subject in the Republican platform.

Chicago, Ill., June 3.—Senator Johnson of California marked his arrival on the Republican convention battleground here today with a prompt and emphatic declaration that he would demand an unequivocal plank in the Republican platform against the League of Nations.

"My paramount purpose," said Senator Johnson, "is to have the Republican party fearlessly and frankly take its stand on the all-important question of the League of Nations, against the present covenant. I want the Republican party in 1920 to be the party for the protection of American independence, just as in 1860 it was the party for the protection of independence of human freedom. The plank on the League which I wish to have adopted, should be one so clear and explicit that it will require neither explanation nor interpretation."

Bonne Millar presided at the organ, and Mr. Eric Latta, brother of the bride, acted as best man. The church was profusely decorated with summer blooms by the girl friends of the young couple. The bride, who was given away by her father, was attired in oyster-white satin, with overdress of tulle, she carried a sheaf bouquet of pink and white roses. Miss Nell Mainwarring of Nanaimo, sister of the groom, and Miss Florence Utting of Port Moody, were the bridesmaids, the former wearing a gown of pale pink satin, and large Legeron hat; the latter, flesh pink crepe de chine embroidered in Pekin blue. They carried bouquets of pink carnations and wore pearl horseshoe brooches, the gift of the bridegroom. Preceding the bride was her tiny sister, Miss Bertha Latta, who as a flower girl, was daintily gowned in lavender crepe de chine and carried a basket of pink blossoms. During the signing of the register, Miss Jean Patterson of Nanaimo sang "Because." The wedding was largely attended, many being present from Nanaimo, Courtenay and Port Moody. Following the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served at the residence of the bride's parents. The happy couple left later for the east by train, travelling in a tailored semi-directoire navy serge suit with pale pink hat and ermine collar, the gift of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Mainwarring will visit Montreal, New York, Buffalo and Toronto, returning in six weeks to take up residence in Vancouver. They were the recipients of many valuable gifts, amongst the donors being Premier Oliver. The bridegroom is a Rotarian.

The Nanaimo Cricket Club sent a team over to Vancouver yesterday to play the G. W. V. A. team of that city, and though the locals were defeated, they had a most enjoyable day's cricket.

PARISIAN PAPERS START CAMPAIGN

For the Purpose of Compelling All Holders of Foodstuffs to Unload Their Wares on the Market.

Paris, June 3.—The newspapers of this City have begun a campaign intended to compel the holders of stocks of food and other necessities, to unload, and it is stated that results have already been obtained.

A radical drop in prices is not expected by students of the situation, but the opinion is general that retail prices must become easier in the face of the decrease in the cost of raw materials.

It is asserted that the public is showing an increased inclination to cut down purchases as far as possible, as a result of revelations made in the campaign.

QUIET ELECTION IN STRICKEN LOUTH

London, June 3.—Probably polling in a by-election has never taken place under sadder surroundings than those at Louth today.

The recent disaster to the little Lincolnshire town due to the rising of the River Lud, caused both candidates to abandon further electioneering. The contest in any case has been quiet.

The fight is a straight one between the Coalitionists and the Independent Liberals. Louth is a huge agricultural constituency which often has yielded poll surprises. The late member, Capt. Brackenbury, secured a majority of 1500 in the general election.

LABOUR MEMBER RESIGNS
London, June 3.—Capt. Albert Smythe, Labor member for Colne, a Lancashire cotton constituency, has resigned. He had a majority of five thousand over the liberal candidate in the last election.

HAVE NOT BEGUN NEGOTIATIONS WITH RUSSIA

Premier Lloyd George Declares That Before Great Britain Will Enter into Them at all, Certain Far-Reaching Guarantees Must Be Given.

London, June 3.—Trade negotiations between the Allies and Gregory Krassin, Russian Soviet Minister of Trade and Commerce, have not yet been begun, according to a statement made by Premier Lloyd George in the House of Commons today.

Replying to a flood of insistent enquiries, the Premier said there were certain questions which Great Britain wanted cleared out of the way before she would undertake the negotiations at all. Russia must guarantee that there will be no attacks on British interests in the east or at home, while the negotiations are proceeding, and must guarantee the release of all British prisoners, whether civil or military.

Copenhagen, June 3.—Gregory Krassin, the Russian Soviet Minister of Trade and Commerce, who is now located in London, is expected soon to open negotiations with the international committee on the resumption of trade with Russia.

Danish firms have recently sold large quantities of agricultural machinery, seeds and medical supplies, for early delivery to Russia.
