Richibucto Notes.

Richibucto, Nov. 22, 1878.

BLACK AND WHITE.—Qur esteemed fellow townsman, Joshua F. Black, was greviously taken in last week by an itinerant individual named White, who professed to be a tree agent, and who being in pecuniary difficulty, applied to the Sheriff and Warden Odell. He said:—

"I was returning from berrying and met a drove of cows, and fearing that Mulherrin's bull was with then, I made a detour to avoid him, as he was a dangerous animal. I care out on the meadow road at the rising ground beyond the gully. There I met Ward with a pitchfork and an axe with him. I asked Ward how he was getting slong haying? Ward here having and will never make any more hay.' I said. 'I have been berrying.' Ward then said. 'You will never go berrying again. I will kill you.' And he made a pass at me with the pitchfork. I laid hold of him and got him down. We tussied for some time. Finally ward promised to make up friends. We walked around the road together and when we reached the gully Ward struck at me again with the pitchfork: I ran around the bushes and he followed me; I then seized the axe and knocked him down; I ran away a short distance; I turned, came back and finished him: I was crazy at the time!
