As this bill, if passed, will, in my opinion, exhaust the remedial legislation which is to be introduced Manitoba in a worse position than they would occupy if this bill did not pass."

What Mr. Laurier Seeks. Again, Mr. Laurier said: "I am certainly in favor of remedial legislation; but where I differ is with regard to the without relieving the minority. I am against this law, because I think it is an appeal to expediency. I am against this law because I think it is the death-blow to the French language in the province of Manitoba. I have full confidence in my party, and not only in the leader of my party, but in his lieutenants. I oppose this bill precisely because I feel that if we were to pass it to-day, it would put an end to all possible chance of re-establishing Mr. Laurier's only supporter from west of Lake Superior is Hon. Joseph Martin, the author of the Manitoba School law. Mr. Laurier has said many a word in praise of Mr. Martin. He has also said that the Manitoba School law is persecution. That opinion was given to an au-dience of French Canadians. But, Mr. Facing-both-ways Laurier had another opinion for the English-speaking Protestant people of Canada. When the Dominion Government, in a mild and politic manner, asked Premier Greenway to deal with the question, Mr. Laurier ordered the Premier to send in a reply which had been drafted by Attorney-General Siften and Mr. Laurier. In this document it was stated "There has been no wrong compilited."

no wrong committed."

Which Mr. Laurier are we to believe? The one who speaks in Quebec or the one that talks in Ontario? Doubtless the former. By religion Roman Catholic and by nationality French, the predilections of the Liberal leader are all in favor of separate schools. He has said so in the use of Commons, in a place in which, s, proach telling the truth

A CHALLENGE ACCEPTED.

Charles Tupper of having tried to raise a prejudice against him in Winnipeg because he is a Roman Catholic and a The Standard Estimates the Number Frenchman. He made this complaint AT 3,600, Besides 1,200 Injured. Frenchman. He made this complaint at a meeting in Montreal, and defieu the Premier to repeat in Sohmer Park, in that city, what he had sail in Winnipeg. Sir Charles Tupper accepted the challenge and the other day, in the face of a gang of bullies, evidently organized to throw the Conservative meeting into disorder and to intimidate him, be repeated what he had said in the capital of Manitoba. We clip from the Star's report of the Premier's speech, which has all the appearance of being a verbattim report, the passage in which he takes up Mr. Laurier's challenge. He said:

The Grit newspapers throughout the land have simulated delight at the news that Sir Oliver Mowat, Ontario's Premier, will ald their leader in the campaign. They neglect to point out that Sir Oliver has given Mr. Laurier very faint-hearted aid. At first, with a great flourish of trumpets, the Liberal press announced that Sir Oliver would resign his sent in the Ontario Legislature and would run in some Ontario constituency. But the Premier was too far seeing to take any chances. He declined to give up his seven thousand dollar post in the Ontario Government, and announced that in the event of Mr. Laurier's attaining power he would enter the Senate

With this Mr. Laurier was fain to be content. He tried his best to conceal his disappointment, but in his speech at Onebre it was extended all the more behind pushed ferward all the more behind pushed forward all the more eagerly, thinking that those in front were getting all the good things, for by this time the people had broken into the booths and were looting them. All at once there was a frantic tush, and the trace or creed (cheers.) I do not hesitate to say that the English or Flench, be he Protestant or Catholic, who seeks for support by endeavoring to an announced that in the event of Mr. Laurier's attaining power he would enter the Senate

With this Mr. Laurier was fain to be content. He tried his best to conceal his disappointment, but in his speech at the long of the more deaction one there, as I am always everywhere, in a position to maintain that I know but one principle and one policy (up to all the more deaction, in the more deaction, and the trace or respect to all without respect to react or creed (cheers.) "Thus we are shown that Sir Oliver's the theory of the parliament of Canada to restore the privaleges of which the feeble Roman Catholic minor.

"Thus we are shown that Sir Oliver's the privalege of the judgment which declares that it is the duty of the Parliament of Canada to restore their privaleges. I say I took the ground that the booths formed a curve, and into this angle the seething mass was pushed hopelessly forward. Here, within a distance of one hundred yards, large numbers of which the feeble Roman Catholic minor.

Thus we are shown that the judgment which declares that the pivaleges that belong to almost everything they had on in the given when individuals escaped they did so stripped of almost everything they had on in the judgment which declares that the pivaleges that belong to the Roman Catholic minor.

All this happened at a point where the booths formed a curve, and into this angle the seething mass was pushed hopelessly forward. Here, within a distance of one hundred yards, large numbers of which the feeble Roman Catholic minor.

should have all their rights, and not only part of them." The leader of the Liberals meant that the demands of his organ, The Electeur, should be gratified. That journal objected to the Remedial bill because it required the separate schools of Manitoba to be inspected, the teachers to be qualified by passing a flavournet examination and the case of the conservative and the arreal was a partfectly fair. bill because it required the separate schools of Manitoba to be inspected, the teachers to be qualified by passing a Government examination, and the text books to be authorized. Mr. Laurier said in the House of Commons: "God help my poor fellow-countrymen if all the help they are going to have is what the hon, gentleman (Sir Charles Tupper) and his followers are prepared to give them. I pity my poor fellow-countrymen of Manitoba or anywhere else if they expect any justice from the hon, gentleman. Repeatedly has Mr. Laurier pronounced in favor of complete remedial legislation, i.e., legislation which shall re-establish the schools as they were prior to 1830, without any inspection, without any examination of teachers, without any examination of teachers, without any guarantee of efficiency. The Government's bill provided for all of these things. And that was why Laurier and his friends voted for the slaughter of the bill. Mr. C. A. Geoffrion, M. P., is one of the prominent Liberals. Said he, in the deate on the bill:

"I am just as anxious as hon, gentlemen opposite are that justice should be rendered, and that our Constitution should be respected. But I most membrate heads and his friends voted for the slaughter of the shaughter of the grown of the prominent Liberals. Said he, in the debate on the bill:

"I am just as anxious as hon, gentlemen opposite are that justice should be rendered, and that our Constitution should be respected. But I most emphatically say that this bill, which I have now before me, does not render justice, and I am most decidedly in favor of voting the six months' hoist, because the acceptance of such a bill would be a deliusion and a most decidedly in favor of voting the six months' hoist, because the acceptance of such a bill would be a deliusion and a most decidedly in favor of voting the six months' hoist, because the acceptance of such a bill would be a deliusion and a most decidedly in favor of voting the six months' hoist, because the acceptance of such as a bill would be a delius

PRIVY COUNCIL JUDGMENT.

The judgment of the Privy Council on the Prohibition case submitted to it for decision may not yet be fully understood in all its bearings, but as to its substantial meaning there appears but little loubt. Probably no man in the Dominon is more entitled to be considered an authority upon what the Privy Council judgment means than is Mr. J. J. Macleren, Q. C., LL. D., who presented the case before the Court for the Government of Ontario. Speaking of the decision to a representative of the Mail and Empire, he said that, roughly speaking, the Privy Council had answered the first as a superior submitted to them—which related to whether the Province had power to prohibit—in the negative. With regard to question seven, which referred to the the councer of the Mail power to prohibit—in the negative. With regard to question seven, which referred to the the councer of the Ontario.
