GAMPBELLTON PEOPLE FOOLED.

Alleged That Many Names Were Forged By Agent.

ome months or years ago a bright young man from the Trade Publishing Company, Toronto, came to Campbellton soliciting subscriptions for a trade directory his firm intended issuing. It is claimed that he visited a large number of our business men, got them to write their signatures on a piece of blank paper (so there would be no mistake in the spelling) and then canvassed them to subscribe for a copy of the directory He no doubt received a number of genuine orders for the work, but it is claimed by a number of business men that their signatures have been forged to the order which is being produced by the agent who is delivering the book. In a number of cases payment is being refused and the Graphic understands one gentleman who was victimized is going to take the matter into court. The orders are of such date that the average business man would hardly remember the transaction and call A large number of have been delivered here.

It's a pity when sick ones drug the stomach or stimulate the Heart and Kidneys. That is all wrong; A week Stomach, means weak stomach nerves, Stomach, means weak stomach nerves, always. And this is also true of the Heart and Kidneys. The weak nerves are instead crying out for help. This explains why Dr, Shoop's Restorative is promptly helping Stomach, Heart an 1 Kidney alments. From 80 to 100 men have been employed at the boom this season. The rafting operations are about done.

It is said that a Newcastle young man is to build a store here and bring his family here to settle.

With the large increase of population which may be expected when the pulp mill begins operations a number of new houses will be required. It is to be hoped that the new comers will not be crowded.

There was a scurrying of feet, and Tim could hear his brother and sister laughing and chattering as they threw themselves into Uncle Ben's arms. Then he heard Uncle exclaim londly "Where's Tim?"

Where was Tim? No one had seen him, but surely he must be almost ready by this time. Mother ran quickly upstairs. Hurrying into Tim's room, there she found the little fellow, sitting on the side of his bed, sobbing with vexation. He had not even commenced to dress.
"Why, Tim, what is the matter?"

"Can't find my shoe," he explained

Mother sighed. "Carelessness again," she murmured. Then she added kindly, "Now hurry and dress, and I'll ask Uncle Ben to wait a few minutes for
