HAMILTON EVENING TIMES WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 2 1907

An immense sale of new embroideries In quality, volume and values this sale stands alone

beautiful and most complete showing—fully five times greater than any em-broidery stock heretofore imported by this store. Endless varieties of new 1907 styles for white dress and blouse trimmings, and entire white robes, also scores of complete sets for underwear and infants' wear.

Newest next summer's styles comprising an interweaving of new blind (solid) work with open designs, also new Irish effects in open patterns, others are in shadow work, while French hand embroidery in solid work holds supreme in the more expensive sets.

These beautiful new embroideries have been specially made for us by many leading manu-facturers in Switzerland. Our contracts were placed many months ago before recent price ad-vances, ensuring you the very best qualities at unrivalled low prices.

Values that even this store never matched The success of this great embroidery and white goods sale depends on the high quality of the embroideries quite as much as on the low prices—and the low prices are unrivalled.
