

ROUTINE WORK IN THE LEGISLATURE

Several Bills Are Advanced a Stage at Yesterday Afternoon's Session of House.

(Friday's Daily.) At yesterday afternoon's session of the legislature "an act with respect to Compensation for Workmen for Injuries Suffered in the Course of their Employment" was brought in by the Attorney-General, Hon. Mr. Cross.

Dr. Tory's Appointment. Hon. Mr. Rutherford made the following reply to the questions asked by A. J. Robertson, member for High River.

To Prosecute Vancouver Milkmen. Vancouver, B.C., Feb. 6.—A whole sale prosecution of milk dealers, who handle a poor product, commences tomorrow.

Indians Held Up Jap. Bulletin Special. Calgary, Feb. 7.—Last night three full blooded Indians held up a Jap on the river side flats.

GOOD HEARTED KING IS THEIR LAST HOPE Our Charitable Sovereign Edward Will Be Asked to Divide his Personal Property For Poor—March of Unemployment.

London, Feb. 6.—What promises to be the practical besieging of King Edward by a small army of the unemployed is the odd problem confronting the authorities.

KAID MACLEAN RELEASED. Bandit Raisali Hands Over Person of Amos Engelman.

Catholics in England. London, Westminster, has published a statistical account of the progress of catholicity in England up to the end of 1907.

To Protect Workingmen. New York, Feb. 7.—An exposition designed to show the best methods of safeguarding workers and protecting the general public will be held in the city beginning early in April.

White Goods Sale For one week only during our big stock-taking sale we will offer our customers a chance to buy white goods and ladies' white wear at stock taking sale prices.

Ladies' White Wear of every description. Children's White Dresses and Pinafiores. White Cottons, Cambrics, Lawns, White

W. Johnstone Walker & Company 267 Jasper Avenue East.

COMPENSATION FOR WORKMEN

Bill Which Comes Up For Second Reading On Friday Next Provides For Injured Workmen.

(Friday's Daily.) The Compensation act introduced yesterday afternoon in the legislature by the attorney general, Hon. Mr. Cross, is one of the most important measures to come before the house this year.

Liability of Employers. In case of injury to a workman the employer shall be liable in respect of any injury which does not disable the workman for a period of at least two weeks from earning full wages at his work.

When the injury was caused by the negligence or wilful act of the employer or of some person for whose act or default the employer is responsible nothing in the act shall affect any civil liability of the employer, but in that case the workman may either claim compensation under this act or take proceedings in respect of the act.

It is provided that the injury to a workman is attributable to the negligence and wilful misconduct of that workman, any compensation claimed in respect of that injury shall be reduced in the injury results in death, be disabled.

Proceedings shall not be maintained if the claim for compensation in case of accident has not been made within six months of the occurrence of the injury, or in case of death within six months from the time of death.

GEORGIAN BAY CANAL. Debates in Senate is Closed—Discuss Earl Carrington's Speech.

Ottawa, Feb. 6.—In the Senate today Senator Cavendish spoke of the value of the Georgian Bay Canal, by canal with a two cent rate to Montreal, a half tonnage to the westward.

DRINKWATER TO RETIRE. Montreal, Feb. 7.—It is reported at the Canadian Pacific headquarters today that Charles Drinkwater, who has been in the employ of the road since its inception, will shortly resign to take up special legislative work at Ottawa and be succeeded by W. R. Baker.

Timber Administration is Endorsed by Federal House—Conclusion of Long Debate.

Ottawa, February 7.—In the House of Commons yesterday, Hon. Clifford Sifton, ex-minister of the interior, in the debate on R. S. Lake's (Conservative member for Appelle) motion for an investigation of the timber limits abatements, said the limits granted under a previous government because of their inaccessibility.

Compulsory Flag Flying Makes Fuss. Flag-Flying Over Schools Under Compulsion and Risk of Penalties Makes Trouble in Manitoba—Mennonites Object to Law.

Winnipeg, Feb. 7.—In the Legislature yesterday Valentine Winkler ventilated the conscientious scruples of the Mennonites against flying the flag above their schools, it being regarded as a symbol of military service.

Shareholders Approve Amalgamation. Toronto, Feb. 7.—The Crown Bank of Canada held a meeting today, ninety-five per cent of the shareholders representing the vote for amalgamation with the Northern Bank.

Interested in Canadian Property. Montreal, Feb. 7.—A special cable says Lord Ranfurly, the popular ex-governor of New Zealand, sails for Canada at the end of the month.

LAKE'S MOTION MEETS DEFEAT

Timber Administration is Endorsed by Federal House—Conclusion of Long Debate.

Ottawa, February 7.—In the House of Commons yesterday, Hon. Clifford Sifton, ex-minister of the interior, in the debate on R. S. Lake's (Conservative member for Appelle) motion for an investigation of the timber limits abatements, said the limits granted under a previous government because of their inaccessibility.

He Answers Borden. Dealing with Mr. Borden's reasons for demanding an enquiry list, that the limits were sold without a proper valuation, he said this system had existed since 1889 and no facts were in dispute.

NO SUMMER FAIR TO BE HELD HERE. Stock Show Lasting Two Days Will Be Held Instead During Next June.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

WILL WAIT THE EXPERT'S RETURN

City Council Does Not Let New Telephone Contract. Debitures Sold at High Price.

(Friday's Daily.) Although the council session of last evening was one of the shortest that has been held for some time, two very important matters were decided by the aldermen.

Mayor McDougall stated that the city had been negotiating with the Imperial Bank and with the firm of Carruthers, Round & Co. for some time regarding the sale of the $80,000 block of debentures.

PREPARED FOR SUICIDE. San Francisco Woman Makes All Arrangements For Her Death.

New York, Feb. 7.—"I should like you to feel that it is the surrender of a proud, strong soul."

In these words penned to a friend today, Mrs. Cleo O. Walton of San Francisco, explained a suicide plan which she had made.

Recently she called at an undertaker, selected and paid for a casket. She explained that she was in ill health, and could not survive long.

Every detail looking to the disposition of her body and effects was carefully planned. To-day she asked for and settled her account at the hotel, paid a few small bills, and then wrote several letters.

The police, coroner and undertaker were notified of the expected hour of death. When the three arrived simultaneously, and burst into her room, the body, carefully dressed, lay upon her bed.

She had attired herself in a blue and white checked skirt, a white shirt waist, white knit slippers, and white stockings. Her hair was carefully arranged in a Marcel wave.

The letters left included one to Dr. T. Wright, a life long friend of this city, and a sister, Mrs. James K. Baby, of Flat Creek, Tenn.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

WILL WAIT THE EXPERT'S RETURN

City Council Does Not Let New Telephone Contract. Debitures Sold at High Price.

(Friday's Daily.) Although the council session of last evening was one of the shortest that has been held for some time, two very important matters were decided by the aldermen.

Mayor McDougall stated that the city had been negotiating with the Imperial Bank and with the firm of Carruthers, Round & Co. for some time regarding the sale of the $80,000 block of debentures.

PREPARED FOR SUICIDE. San Francisco Woman Makes All Arrangements For Her Death.

New York, Feb. 7.—"I should like you to feel that it is the surrender of a proud, strong soul."

In these words penned to a friend today, Mrs. Cleo O. Walton of San Francisco, explained a suicide plan which she had made.

Recently she called at an undertaker, selected and paid for a casket. She explained that she was in ill health, and could not survive long.

Every detail looking to the disposition of her body and effects was carefully planned. To-day she asked for and settled her account at the hotel, paid a few small bills, and then wrote several letters.

The police, coroner and undertaker were notified of the expected hour of death. When the three arrived simultaneously, and burst into her room, the body, carefully dressed, lay upon her bed.

She had attired herself in a blue and white checked skirt, a white shirt waist, white knit slippers, and white stockings. Her hair was carefully arranged in a Marcel wave.

The letters left included one to Dr. T. Wright, a life long friend of this city, and a sister, Mrs. James K. Baby, of Flat Creek, Tenn.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

WILL WAIT THE EXPERT'S RETURN

City Council Does Not Let New Telephone Contract. Debitures Sold at High Price.

(Friday's Daily.) Although the council session of last evening was one of the shortest that has been held for some time, two very important matters were decided by the aldermen.

Mayor McDougall stated that the city had been negotiating with the Imperial Bank and with the firm of Carruthers, Round & Co. for some time regarding the sale of the $80,000 block of debentures.

PREPARED FOR SUICIDE. San Francisco Woman Makes All Arrangements For Her Death.

New York, Feb. 7.—"I should like you to feel that it is the surrender of a proud, strong soul."

In these words penned to a friend today, Mrs. Cleo O. Walton of San Francisco, explained a suicide plan which she had made.

Recently she called at an undertaker, selected and paid for a casket. She explained that she was in ill health, and could not survive long.

Every detail looking to the disposition of her body and effects was carefully planned. To-day she asked for and settled her account at the hotel, paid a few small bills, and then wrote several letters.

The police, coroner and undertaker were notified of the expected hour of death. When the three arrived simultaneously, and burst into her room, the body, carefully dressed, lay upon her bed.

She had attired herself in a blue and white checked skirt, a white shirt waist, white knit slippers, and white stockings. Her hair was carefully arranged in a Marcel wave.

The letters left included one to Dr. T. Wright, a life long friend of this city, and a sister, Mrs. James K. Baby, of Flat Creek, Tenn.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

WILL WAIT THE EXPERT'S RETURN

City Council Does Not Let New Telephone Contract. Debitures Sold at High Price.

(Friday's Daily.) Although the council session of last evening was one of the shortest that has been held for some time, two very important matters were decided by the aldermen.

Mayor McDougall stated that the city had been negotiating with the Imperial Bank and with the firm of Carruthers, Round & Co. for some time regarding the sale of the $80,000 block of debentures.

PREPARED FOR SUICIDE. San Francisco Woman Makes All Arrangements For Her Death.

New York, Feb. 7.—"I should like you to feel that it is the surrender of a proud, strong soul."

In these words penned to a friend today, Mrs. Cleo O. Walton of San Francisco, explained a suicide plan which she had made.

Recently she called at an undertaker, selected and paid for a casket. She explained that she was in ill health, and could not survive long.

Every detail looking to the disposition of her body and effects was carefully planned. To-day she asked for and settled her account at the hotel, paid a few small bills, and then wrote several letters.

The police, coroner and undertaker were notified of the expected hour of death. When the three arrived simultaneously, and burst into her room, the body, carefully dressed, lay upon her bed.

She had attired herself in a blue and white checked skirt, a white shirt waist, white knit slippers, and white stockings. Her hair was carefully arranged in a Marcel wave.

The letters left included one to Dr. T. Wright, a life long friend of this city, and a sister, Mrs. James K. Baby, of Flat Creek, Tenn.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.

Edmonton next summer will not have a fair, it is announced here today. The first week in July, as in the past few years.