Sundry Bores.

People dodge old Dad McGory as they carol and sing, for he always has a story that he's suffering to spring; and his tales are always dreary, so they make his heart-strings weary, and they wish him in Sillery with his anecdotal string. People dodge old Billy Biddle when he comes up in their view, for he always has a riddle that he wants an answer to, and his riddles are as hoary as the yarns of Dad McGory, and from Boston to Empory people seeing him cry "Shoo!" People dodge old Hug-kleberry as around the town they whiz; for his stories never vary—they are of his rheumatiz; oh, he always is complaining how he suffers when it rains, how his tortured thews are straining when the wintry blizzards bliz. People dodge old Sarah Twister, for she gives them all an ache; she's a tireless shrieking sister, batty on the suffrage faze; wearing out her vocal features she is lecturing the bleachers on the rights of female creatures when she should stay home and bake. People dodge old Peter Peddler; he's severely left alone; for he is a chronic meddler in affairs which aren't his own; he's a rare old mischief maker, spreading gossip by the acre he's a bad old scandal raker, and his name makes people groan.

Wedding Bells.

The wedding of Miss Annie Hamilton late of J. J. Callanan's grocery store, and Mr. Arthur Barnes, conductor on the street car system, took place recently. Rev. Fr. McDermott, being the officiating clergyman. The bride was attired in pale blue silk trimmed with old gold lace, with wreath and orange blossoms. She was assisted by Miss Mamie Evans, who wore a pretty costume of blue. The groom was supported by Mr. J. Roud. After the ceremony a wedding supper was enjoyed by many friends of the happy pair at Donovan's. Many valuable presents were received, including a cheque from J. J. Callanan & Co. The bride and groom go by the Stephano to Jersey City, where they will reside in future. The Telegram extends congratulations.

The Light on Kenna's Hill.

The residents of the East End are delighted that they are at last getting a light on Kenna's Hill. A good light here will probably serve a larger area than is served by any other light in the city, as it will show as far as the Golf Links on Logy Bay Road, and to Mount Cashel on the Torbay Road, as well as dispelling the darkness from Kenna's Hill to the King's Bridge. That it was badly needed, has been proven on many occasions, and now that its erection has been arranged for the residents of that locality will be correspondingly appreciative.

Bazaar Notice.

The Ladies' of St. Bonaventure's Association regret very much that, owing to the confusion arising from the tragic occurrence during the dance of last evening, the comfort of those who were so kind as to attend was neglected. Believing that it would be in accord with the wishes of the donors of last night, it is the intention of the Association to send the entire refreshment supply to the different City Orphanages. Any lady or gentleman who attended the dance and wishes a return of the entrance fee can obtain same by applying to MRS. T. J. EDENS, No. 29 Queen's Road, at any time up to 6 p.m. on Monday.—adv11.

ONE OF MANY.—Yesterday Mrs. Neary, of Fort Townsend, lost her hand bag and put a little ad in the Telegram. Result: Paper not a minute on the street when the property was handed in and soon in the possession of the highly pleased owner. This is only one example of daily recurring incidents of a similar kind. The Telegram "best of the hand" as an advertising medium.

HEAVY RAIN STORM.—Last night and this morning a heavy rain storm prevailed, and almost without intermission rain poured from the clouds. Skinned To Death

In the Maritime Provinces where fishing conditions are similar to this country almost every fisherman has one or more Motor Engines. On the market there are engines of nearly every manufacture and every engine represented in Nfld. is offered there. Despite this there are more FAIRBANKS ENGINES used there than all other makes together, and FAIRBANKS Sales are continually increasing. This fact should commend itself to all and must be regarded as a proof of the superiority of the Fairbanks Engine over all others.

Eczema Cured Three Years Ago

See City Doctors Failed, But Cure Was Effected by Use of Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Mrs. A. T. Smith.

You apply Dr. Chase's Ointment for eczema and feel the benefit as it goes on. It may take some days to get the sores cleaned out and the healing process fully established, but from day to day you see the old trouble gradually disappearing and know that you are getting rid of it.

Mrs. A. T. Smith, 1 Mt. Charles St., Montreal, Que., writes:—"I had eczema on my leg for four years, and tried many remedies and doctors in Montreal and Boston, without any benefit. I used three boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment and was cured completely. This was three years ago. Since then I used Dr. Chase's Ointment for irritations and eruptions of the skin, and easily got rid of them with two or three applications. Dr. Chase's Ointment is a wonderful preparation.
