Letter From

J. E. Demster.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Sir.—The Morris Administration takes credit to itself for putting all sugars on the free list. To my mind, it is far from creditable to have placed Loaf and Cube sugars on the free list—these sugars are solely used by the so-called upper classes at their afternoon teas and bridge parties. People who can take their trips away and return with new clothing on their backs which don't pay the outrageous duty of 45 p.c. The duty on common soaps, such as the average fisherman uses, was advanced by the Morris Government to about 70 p.c. Probably Sir Ralph Williams had this in his "minds eye" when he assumed that the Newfoundland people were next to the "Boers" in uncleanness.

It is not fair to have been to have reduced the duties on clothing, soap and raisins—the latter mainly used by fishermen—paying an average duty of 100 p.c. than to have reduced the tariff on cube sugar from 4c. lb. to nothing. Capt. Cashin has knocked a hole in the "ship of state" with his tariff reform, and it will take Sir Edward with all his wits to get her repaired before the next election.

Yours truly,

J. E. DEMSTER.

Casino Last Night.

The Casino was well attended last evening, and the programme was most favorably commented on. The destruction of Pompeii, is one of the finest films ever presented in St. John's. The story which is an interesting one is depicted in a clever manner. No one should miss this great picture. "The Hospital Baby" is a marvellous picture, too, which delighted all present. "Training a Husband" is a sparkling comedy. To-night will be the last chance of seeing this great programme. The Casino closes to-night for Holy Week.
