THE DAILY DOPE BY THE CUB-EDITOR

THE OFFICE GIRL.
The office is really a different place. For every man works with a smile on his face.
It's certainly such is the case, because we've got girls in the office. The office-boy formerly looked such a wreck.
Now with clean collars his form he'll bedeck,
Indeed, it is whispered he's washed his neck—
Now we've got girls in the office.
We "Master" each other most formally now,
And never by any chance kick up a row,
Our conduct's exemplary, all must allow,
Since we've had girls in the office.
From using strong language the seniors shrivel.
The effort it costs them you really can't think!
And the Manager goes out for a stamp!
Now we've got girls in the office.
Nobody seems in a hurry to leave;
And tales go out you can hardly believe,
That powder's been seen on the Governor's sleeve!
Since we've had girls in the office, where it will end, no one knows, or one cares.
Yet it makes one more careful about what one wears,
And it's costing me now about double in fares!
Since we've had girls in the office.

ENCOURAGING THE PATENT.
John Jimson was very ill. He called in a doctor, who hemmed and hawed and called in a second doctor. Then, while John Jimson lay and suffered, the two quarrelled about the case.
"You are wrong!" said Dr. No. 1.
"I'm right!" retorted Dr. No. 2.
"You're wrong!" repeated Dr. No. 1.
Here the patient gave a groan, and brought the medical men to a realization of the needs of the moment. But Dr. No. 2 couldn't resist a last swipe. Won of the needs of the moment. But I'll prove I'm right at the post-mortem!"

CENTURIES OLD.
The custom of deforming the feet among the females of China is said to have originated several centuries ago when a large body of women rose against the government and tried to overthrow it. To prevent the recurrence of such an event the use of wooden shoes so small as to disable them from making any effective use of their feet was enforced on all female infants.

Ten thousand gross steel pens can be made from one ton of metal.

HE OBJECTED.
Jobson: "What a fine, tall fellow your eldest son has grown."
Small: "Yes, worse luck!"
"How's that? I should have thought you would be proud of him. He's only fourteen, isn't he?"
"Yes, but I do object to having his trousers cut down to fit me!"

The volume of the rocky crust of the earth, estimated at ten miles thick, including the mean elevation of the land above the sea, is 1,633,000 cubic miles.

PERSONAL.
Ellick Helwanger spent the past ten days in Tickville as a guest of the jailer. He thought about returning home sooner, but was delayed on account of the door being fastened from the outside.

It isn't what's on a man, but what's in him. That is the true standard of measuring him.

Make a faith a dogma absolute, and persecution becomes a logical consequence.—Thackeray.

NO SPEEDOMETER NEEDED.
"I don't need any speedometer on my tin lizzy, I can easily tell my speed."
"How do you do it?" said the friend.
"Well, when I go ten miles an hour my lamps rattle, when I go fifteen miles the fender rattles, and when I go twenty miles an hour my bones rattle."

UNFORTUNATE, ALTOGETHER!
"But Lewis, the ring you gave me will not fit any of my fingers."
"What a nuisance. Well, the only thing will be for me to get another girl."

For hundreds of years the Nile floods have not varied ten days in their arrival.
Trifes, light as air, are, to the jealous, confirmations strong, as proofs of holy writ.—Shakespeare.

THE ADVANTAGE.
"I don't see that there is any advantage in those clay pipes you always seem to prefer," said Wesley Willie, in perfect English.
"Oh, but there is," replied Tired Tim, testily. "When you drop them on the ground, for instance, you hav'n't to stoop and pick them up."
