The Daily Questionnaire.

Sir M. P. Cashin.—To ask Hon. the Prime Minister, in the absence of the Hon. Minister of Marine and Fisheries, if Mr. E. Collishaw was a silent partner with the Rev. F. H. Boone in the purchase of beaver skins, and if it is correct that these parties are now negotiating for a further supply of skins, and if so are they to be given the same without tenders.

Sir M. P. Cashin.—To ask Hon. the Prime Minister how many men were employed on Bell Island each week since operations were started after New Year, said statement to show for each week the number of actual residents of Bell Island employed, and the number of people from other localities in Conception Bay, specifying the same.

Sir M. P. Cashin.—To ask Hon. the Prime Minister if he is aware that a number of families are living at a place called "The Green," on Bell Island, in huts unfit for human habitation and where they are with little or no food and without any creature comforts, as a result of these people having gone to the island to look for work and being unable to obtain the same; also if it is the case that a number of people from Mr. Grace District furnished with work tickets refused to go underground and insisted on being employed on the surface, and if, as a result of this, other people from Mr. Main District willing to work underground cannot secure employment because their politics are supposed to be different from those of the Government.

Sir M. P. Cashin.—To ask Hon. the Minister of Education to lay on the table a copy of the Report of his Department; also to lay on the table statement showing why the fees for those entering for the Higher Education were doubled last year, and to show what disposition is to be made of the increased amount obtained thereby.

Sir M. P. Cashin.—To ask Hon. the Minister of Public Works to lay on the table of the House a statement showing the cost to date of the addition to the Post Office Building, St. John's said statement to show how much has been paid for construction, how much for inspection, and how much for any other purpose; who is the Inspector, or Inspectors, if more than one, and the amount paid to such person or persons for their services in said capacity; also an estimate of the cost to complete the said addition.

Sir M. P. Cashin.—To ask Hon. the Prime Minister, in the absence of the Hon. Minister of Finance and Customs, to lay on the table of the House a list of the parties who gave bonds for duties during the fiscal year 1920-21 and have not paid the same, and the amounts due on each of them; and also to ask what steps the Government have taken to collect this money.

Sir M. P. Cashin.—To ask Hon. the Minister of Finance and Customs, or the Minister of Public Works to lay on the table a statement showing the expenditures on account of relief works from the 1st of July last, said statement to show the amounts spent on each of the several undertakings under this head set on foot by the Government and the amounts paid for each of the same in each of the electoral districts—such as road works, marine works, snow-shovelling, stone breaking, the cutting of pulp wood and pit props, the cutting of wharf sticks etc.

Sir M. P. Cashin.—To ask Hon. the Prime Minister to lay on the table a statement showing the amount expended by way of poor relief in each of the various electoral districts from the 1st of July last up to date, and an estimate of the amount expected to be spent in each of the districts for the remainder of the fiscal year.

Sir M. P. Cashin.—To ask Hon. the Minister of Education (a) where the Normal School is now being conducted, (b) how many teachers are being trained there, (c) give a list of the staff of teachers and the salaries paid them; (d) the cost of the other expenses incurred in maintaining the school, same to be given under the various heads; (e) the estimated cost of the proposed new Normal School, showing the amount for construction and the amount for equipment, and to say why this expenditure needs to be incurred at the present time if the existing quarters of the School are adequate for its requirements.

Jackie Coogan Scores at the Nickel.

"PECK'S BAD BOY" DELIGHTS LARGE HOUSES.

Last night's mammoth show at the Nickel, was one of unusual attraction. Little Jackie Coogan appeared in his greatest triumph since "The Kid." "Peck's Bad Boy" provided an excellent evening's amusement. The original bad boy of George W. Peck's imagination was an unlicked cub, who was old enough to know better, and his pranks would not have been amusing in real life. To see five-year-old Jackie Coogan putting ants in his father's pleurisy pad and letting a circus lion loose is to realize that you are looking at an amusing fairy tale, and that the small hero of these adventures never did invent or take part in one of them. But that is entirely beside the matter. The wonder is the way in which young Coogan enters into the spirit of the thing, and plays his scenes with the finish of an adult of keen artistic perception and well-rounded experience. The boy's performance is largely the triumph over babyhood, and the natural instinct of a born actor. The producer has had the good judgment to surround his small star with a high grade supporting company, and there is a tone to the picture that lifts it miles above its theme. This is a film that everybody should make an effort to see.

Grand Black Chapter.

LOYAL ORANGE ASSOCIATION.

The annual session of the Provincial Grand Black Chapter of the L.O.A. opened last night in Victoria Hall. Grand Master Jordan Milley occupied the chair. There was a representative attendance of delegates. After the opening address by the Grand Master various Committees were appointed to handle the business of the session. Other work of routine nature was also gone through. The session was continued this morning and afternoon, when the election of officers took place and the meeting of the Chapter was brought to a close. The Provincial Grand Orange Lodge opens at 8 o'clock to-night, Grand Master Cave occupying the chair.

Obituary.

Please allow me space in the columns of your widely circulated paper to record the death of a beloved friend in the person of John William Davey, of this place. Though quite a young man, he had been in declining health for a number of years, until quite recently when it became manifestly certain that the sands of life were trickling out, and on the evening of the 21st inst. it pleased the Almighty God to call the sufferer to His mercy. During a prolonged illness, deceased bore his affliction with peaceful resignation. He was thirty-four years old, and both popular and amiable. In the C. of E. Cemetery on the 23rd surrounded by sorrowing relatives and friends and the members of the L.O.A. in full regalia with whom deceased was fraternized, the ashes were committed to the ground. A wife, two daughters, parents, two sisters and one brother survives him. May our Heavenly Father allay the anguish of their grief and leave them only a cherished memory of the dear departed. E. STANLEY HARVEY. Hopewell, March 25, 1922.

St. Bon's Win Tie-Cup.

FEILDIAHS LOSE FIRST GAME FOR YEAR.

After going through the entire season without losing a game, the victorious Feildians were defeated in the final of the Cap Tie series by the narrow margin of one goal, scored in the last five minutes of the game. St. Bon's played a good game and worked hard for their win. His Excellency the Governor was present during the evening.

THE PLAY.

The ice was very heavy and consequently play was not fast. Tait was missed from the Feildian defence and this was a severe handicap to the team. Ewing opened the score for the Feildians within two minutes of the start and soon afterwards, he again found St. Bon's net. "Coke" Cahill, however, was bent on celebrating what was his last hockey game here for some time, and before the period ended he twice got past the redoubtable "Nix." In the second period, Cahill again scored, this time from a pass by Halley and before the gong went Tommy Payn got in with the equalizer.

THE THIRD PERIOD.

opened with excitement at fever heat. Each team had many tries at goal but the soft ice prevented good play and effective shooting. With five minutes to go, Callahan got through and beat Hunt for the last time. Mr. Gus Herder was referee.

EFFICIENT MANAGEMENT.

Before the hockey season closes, it is only right that a tribute should be paid the manager of the rink, Mr. P. E. Outerbridge, for his efficient work. His was a difficult task, first because he had had no previous experience in rink management, and secondly because to run the rink and please all is no very easy matter. Mr. Outerbridge, however, gave entire satisfaction to both Hockey Leagues and the general public, and no little courtesy that could add to the comfort of his patrons was left undone. It is to be hoped that he will long continue as manager of the Prince's Rink.
