Another Victory.

Once more the "red duster" has been carried to victory, and the superiority of British seamen and shipping demonstrated in a manner beyond cavil. The International Race Committee are to be congratulated on their decision to disallow the absurd protests of the American Race Committee, and the award of the trophy and first prize to the "Bluenose." Regarding the protest entered on Thursday at Gloucester, that the sails of the Nova Scotian defender were made of duck of a finer texture than is generally used, we have made some enquiries, the result of which there is no reason in withholding. For some time past the Lunenburg fishing fleet owners have been importing an English cotton duck to be made into sails for their bankers. This duck is somewhat finer than the Woodberry and Ontario formerly used, and has become the standard for sails at that port, possessing, it is claimed, more lasting qualities than the article of American manufacture, and will, in future, be universally used by Nova Scotian fishermen. So much for that. The other protests were equally absurd. It is a pity that these ever should have been made, but it is to the credit of the Governing Committee that they refused to entertain them for a moment. On last Saturday, when the first race was officially declared off, Captain Walters offered to give it to the Ford, and was perfectly satisfied that the challenger had won. In marked contrast to this was the action of the protestors, who evidently could not take the decisive defeat of their schooner like true sports. Last year when the contest was off the port of Halifax, there was not a hitch nor a misunderstanding in any of the arrangements. Not so in United States waters. But it is all over for this year, and though some little heat may have been generated over the outcome of Saturday's fiasco, there is no doubt that the real sailors of Gloucester accepted the defeat of the challenger in the right spirit.

Congratulations then to the gallant commander of "Bluenose," Capt. Angus Walters, and his no less gallant crew. They again carried the flag that braved a thousand years the battle and the breeze" to victory and honor, and nobly maintained the best traditions of sport in their winning. The sad tragedy that marred the successful finish cast a gloom over the events following the race, and in the midst of congratulations the flush of victory was toned down because of the sad ending of one of the crew of the Lunenburg, who was also a near relative of the master. The sympathy of everybody is extended to him, and to the other relations of the drowned man. The incident has prevented any further racing until the period of mourning has passed. Whether or not Captain Demone met with his death through foul play cannot very easily be determined. The circumstances under which his dead body was found show that there is something mysterious about the manner of his end. Enquiry may possibly elicit something upon which may be determined the actual cause, and other developments may show just how the body came to be in a dock back of a theatre. It was a deplorable finish to the brilliant victory won by Bluenose, in which the drowned man bore his part with other shipmates. The plaudits of the multitude will be somewhat repressed, when, instead of arriving home in his vessel, with flags flying in celebration of his victory, Captain Walters will be given the mournful task of accompanying the remains of his nephew by train, to be interred in the earth of his native place. And thus ends the 1922 series of International Fishing Schooner races for the Dennis trophy, retained by Canada for another year. The end was not quite so triumphant as the beginning, for the rejoicing over winning will be mingled with regrets that one valuable life was lost to no purpose, and amidst suspicious surroundings.

Vanguard at Port Union

SCHOONERS HAVE HARBOURED.

Some eight or ten vessels of the fleet from Bonavista Bay are now at Port Union awaiting a favorable time to sail. It is understood that most of the vessels have left Westville, but have harboured enroute, as the barometer and weather signs indicated a storm, to-day's readings being from five to eight-tenths below twenty-nine. It is likely that the schooners at Port Union will be along this evening. The fleet left Westville last week but was obliged to put back owing to unfavorable weather.

Schooner Violet J.

MAKES MAIDEN VOYAGE TO PORT

The schr. Violet J., owned by Ed. Jones, Little Bay Islands, arrived in port this morning on her maiden voyage. The schooner left Little Bay Islands on Tuesday last and met stormy weather, which necessitated making harbor at Twillingate. Leaving that port after the sailing of the Meigle, the vessel reached Port Union some hours ahead of the steamer. On the passage from Port Union very heavy winds were encountered, but the vessel proved an admirable sea boat and came through without the slightest mishap. The Violet J. was built at Little Bay Islands last summer by Mr. J. Hull, with 5 helpers. Work was started on the 10th of May and carried through with despatch, the craft being ready for sea some weeks ago. She has on board a cargo of 700 qts. dry fish. Everything on the vessel is spanking new and the workmanship was highly commended by a large number of people who viewed her at Job's Wharf, where she has hauled to discharge.

Wild Cattle.

MADE A GET AWAY FROM SABLE I.

Quite an exciting time was experienced on Harvey & Co's pier this morning when a steer being landed from the Sable I broke loose and made a get away. The animal was captured near the Furness. Withy efforts of a half dozen men to get Taurus back to the premises. Some of the cattle are very wild having come from the Western Prairies. At Sydney three or four gave much trouble when they were being put on board the steamer.

Amongst the latest improvements the R.M.S. Co. have recently made is the installing of a bulletin board in the waiting room of the railway station. One can now see at a glance the daily movements of the inward and outward trains, while no inconvenience can be caused in this respect, if any should have happened formerly. INTERESTING BIBLE STUDIES.

The Cathedral Men's Bible Class meeting yesterday afternoon in the Synod Hall was largely attended. The series of studies now in progress are on the three first chapters of the book of the Revelation of St. John the Divine and have a special interest at this time, as they have something to do with the Near East situation. Both educative and instructive, these lectures are proving very helpful, their most attractive feature being perhaps the striking way in which they set forth the remarkable fulfillment of prophecy. The Epistles to the Ephesians has already been taken. That to the Smyrnae Church was the subject of yesterday's address. In order to enable the class to understand and to more easily follow these studies a special map has been prepared, to illustrate the lectures.

McMurdo's Store News.

MONDAY, Oct. 30.

Not only is it time that many losses by fire are preventable and that a Fire Prevention Week is a civic necessity, but loss by vermin is also a great extent preventable. And this loss by vermin, though by no means as great as our fire losses, cannot be insured against, and must run into some thousands of dollars yearly. Common Sense Rat Exterminator, used judiciously, will destroy vermin and save your vegetables. Why not get a tin at once and use it as a preventive measure. We have it Price 35c. If out of town, ask your dealer for it. He has it, or can obtain it.

Magistrates Court.

Two young men, residing on Newtown Road, were charged with being drunk, and were released on suspended sentence.

A resident of New Gower Street appeared before the court this morning on the charge of being a loose and disorderly person, and the using of vile and filthy language towards one of the officers of the law whilst in the discharge of his duties on the 26th inst. Supt. O'Neill stated that the accused has not caused the police any trouble recently, and that on several occasions he had assisted the police in a number of arrests being made. The Judge spoke strongly on the filthy and vile language that has been going on in the city, giving the prisoner at the bar a sound lecture. He took into consideration Supt. O'Neill's remarks on his behalf, and allowed him to go on suspended sentence.

A man named Hurley for assault on a young girl, did not appear when called upon. A warrant was issued for his arrest. The matter will likely be heard before the court this afternoon.

A number of delinquents were summoned for refusing to pay their Poll Tax. Postponed until Wednesday morning.

For refusing to support his wife and child during the past twelve months, a man of the higher levels stood charged this morning. "Hubby" stated he would support the child but not the wife. Mr. J. Higgins acting on his behalf moved that the case be tried in camera. The evidence as stated by the husband in court was considered cancelled.
