SUNDAY MAGAZINE and GOOD WORDS for July now on hand at Anderson's

It is said that the prettiest girl in Elora is a newspaper carrier. She carries them in her bustle.

REMEMBER the laying of the corner stone of the new Wesleyan Church at 4.30 this afternoon, and the strawberry festival in the Drill Shed this evening at 7 o'clock.

THE WESLEYAN FESTIVAL.—We learn that Col. Clarke has kindly consented to allow one of the splendid Battalion Bands to be present at the Wesleyan Festival in the Drill Shed this evening.

L. O. L.—Prince Arthur Lodge, Guelph, will meet at the rooms on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock and from thence proceed to St. George's church, at 10 o'clock, where the Rev. Mr. Denroche will preach.

RECEIPTS for the preservation of furs during the hot weather abound in all the papers, but the old plan promulgated by Punch long ago is the best. This is to pull out all the hair with tweezers and varnish the skin. In the fall remove the varnish and carefully stick all the hairs in their old place.

BURIED ALIVE.—Malcolm McDonald was buried in a well 30 feet deep in Lucknow, on the 7th inst. He was repairing a curb at the bottom; the curb gave way, and about twenty feet of gravel fell in and covered the unfortunate man. He leaves a wife and four children. The body has not yet been found.

THE FARM.—The Herald is very important for the publication of the evidence lately taken at the Provincial Fair by the Government Committee. Of one thing we are sure, that the Herald will not be consulted in the matter, but we may say that if deemed advisable, the evidence will be published at the proper time.

DAMAGE BY THE STORM.—During the severe storm on Tuesday a barn on the farm occupied by John Wright, about a mile from Fergus, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground in a few minutes. Dr. Orton, M. P., who was in the house at the time, was knocked down by the shock, but was not hurt.
In Douglas the hail storm was unusually severe, smashing the windows in almost every house.

NEW BUSINESS.—We learn that Mr.
Ernst Hornbostel is about completing arrangements for the manufacture in Guelph of Fire and Burglar Proof Safes.
Being an experienced practical workman in that particular branch of business, we have no doubt that Mr. Hornbostel's safes will be equal to any manufactured in the country, and will have a ready sale. We trust he will meet with every encouragement in starting this new business in Guelph.

A COMPLIMENT TO THE CHAMPIONS.— The Hamilton Times remarks: "We have watched with interest the success of the Maple Leaf Base Ball Club, of Guelph, which has been contesting the field at the tournament in Watertown, N. Y. The Canadians have defeated all comers, and carried off the $500 prize.
Fourteen American Clubs competed, among them the champion amateur club of that country. The Maple Leaf had before attained the Championship of Canada, and as the result of this week's work, it stands ahead of all amateur clubs on the continent. At a period when so much pride is taken in athletic superiority, Canada has a right to congratulate Guelph upon this prominent achievement."

STEAMER CORINTHIAN AGENCIES.—On Tuesday evening about 5 o'clock the Canadian Navigation Company's steamer Corinthian was struck by a heavy squall while coming down the Cascade Rapids above Corrae, and grounded. Two hundred and fifty passengers were on board, many of whom became frightened, and were ferried to the shore whence they took a special train to Montreal. On receipt of the news of the accident, the steamer Bohemian was despatched to the scene of the disaster to render all the assistance possible. It appears the steamer had passed the first pitch of the Cascaes and was running comparatively smooth water when a heavy squall struck her from the north. It is supposed the pilot bore up a little to the north to get its force, and that the boat ran slightly out of the channel. A few minutes after, she struck the bottom at, and then bumped along for a short distance until she escaped. She carried over to the south, but the Captain ordered all hands to the other side when she sighted. There was but little screaming among the ladies, although a rush for life preservers was made by many.
About an hour and a half afterwards the steamer, which had previously remained stationary, swung slightly round, and a number of passengers were ferried over to the main land, where they took the train for Montreal at Vaudreuil. All the baggage and freight on the steamer is unharmed. There is no water in the steamer's hold. Praise is due to the officers, who remained cool and collected during the trying emergency. All the cargo and freight from the steamer have been successfully removed.

Watertown Tournament.

(From the Watertown Morning Despatch of the 6th.)

Old Prob. did his very best on Friday to favor the base ball tournament and all interested therein. The rain of the night before left everything in the finest condition possible for the comfort of all.
At an early hour the crowds began leaving for the grounds in every class of vehicle available except wheelbarrows and velocipedes, and the result was an immense crowd on the qui vive to witness the games to be played between the first class clubs billed for the occasion.
The "lamps" didn't shine, but the sun did, over crowds of "fair women and brave men," bound to witness the contest between the Maple Leafs of Guelph, and the Ku Klux, of Oneida Castle, who, though unique as Ku Klux, yet are not Uniques. Both clubs came on the ground looking finely, and prepared for business to the minute, which was begun by the choice of Mr. Frank Mosher of the Rochester team, Mr. S. J. Walls scoring for the Ku Klux, and Mr. Matthew Tinker for the Maple Leafs. The Ku Klux won the toss, the Maple Leafs going to the bat at 10 o'clock precisely.
The first innings started off in a business like manner, giving some indication that a decent match was to be played, the whitewash being freely used on both sides, the score 0.

The second inning again coated the Maple verdure with the whitening fluid and also shed it copiously upon the Ku Klux. In the third inning the Leafs opened with a score of seven runs, the Ku Klux miffing badly. Our scoring for the Dominion are a fine looking body of athletes, and play as though they meant it; the last half of the inning again totaling a cipher for the three K's, who worked hard but without avail so far. The fourth inning blurred the Leafs and introduced the obnoxious "Duke de Klax" to the bat, who, in the Southern patronymic. Score 7 to 0, the Maple folly still waving in the advance. The fifth inning increased the score of the Maples to eleven points and added another round 0 to the record of the Klan, their score having an easy four children. The sixth inning was a keeping his record. Inning No. 6 immersed the Leafs in the kalsomning fluid, the Ku Klux of the Kaste koming carefully up to four runs, breaking up the "goose egg" score nicely. A thorough baptism of whitewashing for the verdure of the Maple in the seventh inning, and an immersion of the same for the three K's left the game 11 to 4 in favor of the Guelphs. In the 8th inning the score of the Maple Leafs increased one; the Klux scoring a cipher.
The 9th and last inning footed up 13 for the Leafs and naught for the K's. Score 13 to 4. Time some two hours.

The only really exciting thing during the whole game was the running down of one of the Maple Leafs between the 2d and 3d base by one of the Ku Klux.
The rapid doubling of the runner and quick passing and re-passing of the ball, and the short but exciting race for the victory were worth seeing.

(The score here follows, which we gave already.)

MAPLE LEAF VS. NASSAUS.
At 10 o'clock on Saturday, the ground was cleared for the regular business, the game between the Nassaus of Brooklyn and the Maple Leafs of Guelph, Ontario.
An immense crowd had assembled to witness this game, the two clubs having a fine reputation. Mr. V. Longhain, of the Flyways, was chosen umpire, Mr.
Matthew Tinker scoring for the Maple Leafs and Mr. P. H. Trotter for the Nassaus. The Leafs won the toss and sent the Nassaus to the bat. No better weather could be asked; the sky being clouded and the atmosphere cool. The first inning scored two runs for the Nassaus and one for the Maple Leafs, both sides evidently watching their opponents, carefully to detect, if possible, a weak point in the play of their adversaries. The first of the second inning added 7 to the score of the Nassaus, and at the close of the inning, the Maple Leafs having scored 5 runs, the game stood 9 to 6 in favor of the Nassaus. The third inning opened with a goose egg for the Nassaus, and closed with a ditto for the Leafs. The fourth inning laid another egg in the Nassaus' nest, and scored one for the Leafs, a 9 to 7, Brooklyn ahead. Fifth inning, one run for the Nassaus, and a violent rain storm closed the game at the first half of the fifth inning, and broke up what promised to be the most exciting game of the tournament thus far. The contest will be renewed between the same clubs this afternoon, and an interesting game may be expected; both clubs are in fine condition and are splendid players.

The following is the score of the match for the $500 prize between the Eastons and Maple Leafs:

The following telegram was sent to Mr. Sleeman from Brantford yesterday:
BRANTFORD, July 8.

To the President of the M. L. D. C. C.—
"The Club, the Town, the Tournament Association, congratulate you on your victory. Hurrah for Canada!"

Iron Moulder's International Union.
The Tilton Beecher Scandal.
The Famine in Calcutta.

Cheyenne, Wyoming, July 8th.—A war party, supposed to be the Northern Sioux, who attempted to capture a party of soldiers, were followed out of Wind River Valley by the Shoshone scouts, and traded to their camp, some seventy-five miles north-east from Cape Brown. A party of troops were sent after them.
They attacked the Indians on the 3rd inst., killing and wounding about fifty, who proved to be the Sioux, and capturing over 100 head of horses. Three soldiers were killed and three wounded.
These Indians have been committing depredations along the frontier for some time.

Milwaukee, July 8.—At Gravesville, Wis., yesterday, a man named Thomas Lofie murdered his wife, knocking her down with a hammer. He then cut her in a horrible manner, and concealed her body under the house, covering it with rags. On being arrested he said he killed her so she would not abuse his children any more.

Baltimore, July 8.—Gov. Groome has commuted the sentence of Charles Henry Jones, sentenced to be hanged on August 7th, to twenty-one years imprisonment.

Detroit, July 8.—To-day is the second of the bird shooting tournament. Hall, of Saginaw, and Custy, of Detroit, divided the $100 prize; Smith, of Buffalo, took the $75 prize; Caldwell took $50; and Colburn, of Detroit, $30.

Richmond, Va., July 8.—The twelfth session of the Iron Moulder's International Union commenced here to-day.
Nineteen States and the Canadas are represented. The report of the President shows 286 local unions, with a membership of about 5,000.

London, July 9.—The Times' Paris correspondent telegraphs that Mac-Mahon in his forthcoming message will probably state that he could not accept the resignations of the Ministers because they defended his power, and he wished to save the country from a new ministerial crisis. He will request the Assembly to hasten the action on financial measures, and then adjourn for the summer months, and on the re-assembling proceed to definitely organize his powers.

London, July 9.—It is reported that Parliament will be prorogued on the 8th of August.

Despatches from Calcutta state that 800,000 natives are now employed on the rail works, a million less than three weeks ago. Half a million are still subsisting on the charity of the Government and the public.

New York, July 9.—The Golden Age of this morning has an article saying that Plymouth Church has adopted the policy of silence. It sees the character of one whose good name it is bound to defend from every aspersions assertion, beyond under grave and terrible suspicion, and while millions in agony of sympathy for him, intreat it to open its lips and speak for an assuring word, it persistently holds its tongue.

Cricket Match.
BRIGADE VS. GUELPH CLUB.

On Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock the wickets were pitched at the Guelph Cricket grounds, for a game between eleven of the town club and a team chosen from the Brigade. A goodly crowd, comprising many of the fair sex, was in attendance, and the Band of the 29th Battalion discoursed excellent music.
The game lasted till about six o'clock, and ended in the defeat of the Brigade by the following score:

Body Found at Chatham.
Special to Mercury by Dominion Line.
Chatham, July 9th.

The body of a farmer named Neil Mc-Viear, 45 or 50 years of age, of the township of Chatham, was found early this morning floating in the river near Stringer's Dock. He was last seen on the evening of the 7th. An inquest was held, and a verdict returned of "Found Drowned."

Toronto streets are becoming scandalously unsafe for unprotected females. A lady, whose husband left her for a moment to purchase a newspaper, was grossly insulted by two men at 4 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon on King street, but before the husband overtook the ruffians they had passed out of sight and so escaped chastisement.

Fergus Correspondence.

On Tuesday, June 30th, as a man named Scott, from Luther, was
