Stark's Powders
ENTIRELY NEW TREATMENT.
Each box contains a box of powder for the immediate relief of Sick and Nervous Headache, and Sick Stomach, Nausea, Restlessness, Toothache and all Nervous Pains; also capsules, forming a never failing treatment for Biliousness, Constipation, Dyspepsia, Dysentery, Torpid Liver, Pain in Back and Side, Lumbago, Constipation, Tired Feeling, Loss of Appetite, Indigestion, Blotches on Skin, Impure Blood. They are also a certain preventive of Bilious and Typhoid Fever. Not like the old-fashioned slow-acting pills, minims, lozenges, etc., but they act at once.
Only 25 cts. a box. Five boxes for $1.00; at all drug stores. Beware of cheap imitations. There are places where there are no imitations.

Mrs. Alex. McIntosh, aged 70 years, was burnt to death in her home at Picton, N.
S., on Thursday.

Ruben Potter and Delphina Charette Thursday pleaded guilty at Belleville to bigamy, and were given 90 days to leave the country.

Harry P. Hyams, wanted at Montreal on a charge of forgery, was called in the court Thursday. As he failed to appear, his recognizance was declared forfeited.
Hyams is in the United States.

Robert Osborne, who met with so serious an accident at the Bertram engine works, Toronto, died Thursday night in the General Hospital. His skull was fractured by a blow from the handle of a crane.

The young man Spence, who received fatal injuries on the Grand Trunk near Sydney, Ont., on Tuesday, was a son of Lieut.- Col. David Spence, of the Dufferin Rifles, Brantford, where the body was taken.

Toronto and other sections of Ontario and Quebec are asking for places in the Princess Louise Hospital, of St. John, N. B., should they be called to the Soudan. Many telegram and letters are coming in asking for places in corps.

James Scott, of Toronto, who committed suicide on Feb. 22, by jumping off a Rosedale bridge, left an estate worth $89,900.
Mrs. Scott is to receive $1,300 annually, the remaining income being divided equally among the sons and daughters.

R. A. Thompson, while drilling for water to run his mill, at Lynden, Ont., struck natural gas with a force which, while burning, threw a black fire ball into the air, out of a four-inch pipe, the gas having to force its way through 300 feet of water.

A Kingston, Ont., telegram says: A lad named Teeples, of Inverary, was handling a loaded gun in the presence of another boy named Barr, when a premature discharge occurred. Barr was shot in the head and fell over unconscious. The physician does not think he can save the boy's life.

Word has reached Toronto of the death of W. A. Forsyth, who had been employed by one of the bicycle factories in that city, a short time ago. Forsyth, it appears, was making his way to Peterboro, and while trying to board a train at Myrtle lost his hold and fell beneath the wheels.

FAIR TO CLOUDY AND MILD WITH RAIN.

Toronto, Ont., March 27—11 p. m.— The eastern depression developed during last night has caused a gale from the south and west throughout Eastern Canada. It is now passing north-eastward over Labrador, followed by clearing weather. In the Lake District and Western Quebec it is generally fair, with higher pressure and moderately cold weather. A general decrease in pressure, with milder, unsettled weather, is setting in throughout the Northwest southward to Texas, with a tendency to an easterly movement, probably giving similar conditions tomorrow in the Lake District.
Minimum and maximum temperatures:
Calgary, 28—48; Battleford, 22—42; Qu'Appelle, 22—40; Winnipeg, 10—48; Toronto, 10—32; Ottawa, 6—25; Montreal, 10—22; Perry Sound, 2—30; Quebec, 14—20; Halifax, 38—48.

PROBABILITIES.
Toronto, March 28—1 a. m.—For the lower lakes region (including counties lying south of the Georgian Bay region, east as far as Belleville)—Increasing east to south winds; fair to cloudy and mild, followed by rain.

—St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church holds an open session of the Sabbath school and Bible classes on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the auditorium of the church. An interesting programme of music and addresses has been provided.

—Dr. O'Hagan, who has been the guest of Dr. Hanavan, city, for several days, left for the east yesterday. Dr.
O'Hagan lectured most acceptably before the ladies of the Sacred Heart Convent. He has just returned from the Catholic School of Oratory at New Orleans, where he also participated in the Mardi Gras festivities. The doctor will resume his literary work in Ontario.

—A team of horses belonging to Mr.
Harry Lewis city traveler for D. S.
Ferry & Co., ran away on Dundas street west yesterday afternoon and scattered biscuit and candy boxes broadcast in the roadway. The horses took to the sidewalk near Perrin's factory, and continued to Talbot street before they were stopped. Many pedestrians were compelled to dodge into doorways to avoid being struck by the rig.

—The special committee appointed by the council to deal with the question of supplies met in the City Hall yesterday afternoon and considered a number of suggestions as to the best method of handling the supplies required during the year. Another meeting will be held on Tuesday next. The members of the committee are Ald.
Armstrong, Benson, Skinner, W. Ica-man, Parnell and Engineer Graydon.

—Rev. James Stephens, of Cambridge, England, who has been preaching special sermons for a week at the Memorial Church to interested congregations, commences tomorrow a series of Passion week sermons. His service for men only in the afternoon will be an important feature of the work. The offerings of the day will be devoted to the Church Parochial Mission Society, which is doing a good work in promoting spiritual life in the Anglican Church.

—According to the secretary's report at the recent Epworth League convention in St. Thomas, there are in London 21 societies, 528 active, 451 associate, and 53 honorary members, and in Stratford, 26 societies, 731 active, 521 associate and 22 honorary members.
The district reporting the largest number of societies is London, with 21; largest number of members, Stratford, 1,274; raising most money for all purposes, Windsor, $549; society with largest membership, Rattenbury Street, Clinton, 190; raising largest amount of money for all purposes, 418. The smallest society numerically is Tyndalton, but though it has only eleven members, it raised $47.

—Mr. John A. Orchard, of Niagara Falls South, died on the 25th inst., in his 81st year. For many years he held the position of clerk of the Division Court, and was one of the oldest residents of the district. He was a native of Devonshire, England, and a fine specimen of the sturdy, manly Englishman, and had many friends, by whom he was held in high esteem.
His wife died several years ago, and they leave no family. Mr. J. G. Cad-ham, his nephew, has lived with him since childhood, and for several years past has assisted him in his duties.
Mr. Orchard was a consistent member of the Church of England, and a staunch Reformer. The funeral takes place on Monday afternoon next.

—The attraction at the Grand on Good Friday, matinee and night, and Saturday, matinee and night, will be "Hands Across the Sea." The Toronto Mail and Empire says: "The Opera House was crowded last night on the occasion of the return of Mr. Henry Pettit's melodrama, 'Hands Across the Sea.' The play, which was previously produced at this theatre about two years ago, is much superior to the general run of melodramas put on the stage. It is a play well constructed,

Dear Sirs,—About three years ago, you may remember I handled some of your medicines at Queenston, Ont. I am not positive, but I think that the "Bark-Well's Sure Corn Cure" that we had was got from your house. Will you kindly reply to this note, telling me if you do handle Bark-Well's, and if so, would it be possible to send by mail? If I am mistaken, can you tell me what firms do handle it? I WANT NO OTHER except Bark-Well's Sure Corn Cure. It is put up in bottles re-talled at 25c. Hoping to hear from you soon, and wishing you compliments of the season, believe me, yours truly,
