Oats sold at 32c to 34c and were in good demand, the orders from private customers absorbing nearly all that was offered. No other kind of grain offered. The price of butter and eggs was unchanged. Chickens and ducks came in more freely. The price did not change. Black currants made their first appearance and sold at 12c. Other kinds of fruit were much the same in price. Vegetables show no change. The first load of new hay sold at $3.50 for a small lot. Quotations:
