FINAL TRIAL OF LONGBOAT GREATLY IMPRESSES BACKERS

New York, April 1.—Tom Longboat second favorite to Longboat, who is ran for an hour and thirty minutes at evens. Maloney is a chap of the cut of Claude Pearce. He is thick-set, but is not as heavy by 20 pounds as the rest of the little Canadian bunch down here, except Tom Flanagan, that they will bet on him in the Marathon

"He has rounded to in remarkably "He has rounded to in remarkably by the original of the control of the fast time," said Tim O'Rourke, who is handling him. "He ran well yesterday, made his own pace and finished strong. I think he will do."

Of course, there is a chance that he is short in training and will fall down before the end of the journey, but there was nothing in his trial yesterday to indicate such a contingency. Give me another week or ten days and I would wager my life on him. I have it in my head that he will show people that the rest was what he wanted." "He looks like the best bet to me."

He says he has legs like a woman and nothing about him impressed him. Around John Daly's there is one best and in the books there he is held going.

Why Dorando? Dorando is held second favorite around Considine's, but on what I cannot see, unles it be on the score of condition. Everybody says Hayes should be a 50 to 1 shot, and Dorando gets his reputation on twice beating Hayes. The first time he made good time, but the second time he was two minutes slower. Since then he has been trimmed by both Shrubb and Longboat. Dorando may be the man. but where does he figure on past performances against the Indian and Shrubb, to say nothing of Maloney and St. Yves?

The Royal Canadians of Toronto nave come through with their longexpected high score, and incidentally took first place in the open five-men This places the Nationals Thirds in third place, with a chance of holding that to the finish. Our old friends, Capps and Sutherland, were handy in the doubles, getting high score, 1,177, a very respectable mark. Reg Graham still holds his place in the singles, although Pett, of Niagara Falls, rolled a higher score than he, getting 651 in the doubles. The tourhey closes on Saturday night, and has Grand Opera House here on Tuesday been a pronounced success.

Match makers are getting busy with Ketchell and Johnson, and will en-deayor to bring them together. It has dawned upon sport followers that James J. It will be remembered that Tom Longboat trimmed both Dorando and Shrubb when not in good condition. If he is right now the race should be fairly easy for him.

LOADED WITH MONEY TO BACK LONGBOAT

Arrival of the Canadians at New York Hammers Price on Indian to 6 to 5.

New York, April 2.—Every detail that will make that Marathon Derby of $10,000 at the Polo Grounds tomorrow a success has been completed. Each one of the six runners, Longboat, the Canadian Indian: Dorando Pietri, the Italian; Alf Shrubb, the Englishman; Henry St. Yves, the Frenchman; Johnny Hayes, the American, who captured the London Johnny Marathon race, and the Irish crack, Matt. Maloney, is keyed up to the highest point of perfection, and each and every one is confident of being rereturned the winner. The fine weather of the last few days has dried the Polo Grounds out to such an extent that a game of ball could be played on it today. The five-lap track is being rolled to the smoothness of a billiard table. It will take a very heavy rainfall to hurt to any great extent, and with a good day overhead, the race will be undoubtedly the most sensational contest of its kind ever held.

With the arrival of a huge delegation of Canadians, all loaded down with noney to bet on Longboat's chances the Indian's price has been hammered down to 6 to 5. Dorando is a strong second choice at 5 to 2, and Shrubb is quoted at 3 to 1; Hayes and Maloney are both 5 to 1, and St. Yves is outside

Jack Johnson Jeered by White Men on His First Appearance in Gotham.

New York, April 1.-It is a hard thing to understand people who don't understand themselves. Not so long ago the general public was calling Tommy Burns uncomplimentary names for not wanting to fight a colored man named Jack Johnson. People said Burns was a coward. They claimed that the color line was a thing of the past, and every fair fighter should be given a chance to earn the championship, irrespective of creed or color. Burns and the colored man finally met in Sydney, Australia. In a fair and square battle, Burns went down to a inglorious defeat and the colored man won the heavyweight champion-

This same Jack Johnson appeared yesterday in New York for the first time since he won the highest honor in the pugilistic world. When he came on the stage at Hammerstein's he was greeted with hoots and jeers by the same people who not long ago took his part against Burns. They hissed him because for some reason beyond his control he was born black. ately, the gallery was crowded with men of Johnson's own race, and their enthusiastic cheering verved to deaden the shameful noises that came from below in the more expensive seats.
