Government Resolution.

Solution in the Senate is a matter for conjecture.

The Democratic leaders in the liouse intend to be practical in their front to revise the tariff. They will frame their bills in a way that they hope will appeal to Republican insurgents in the Senate without whose support a Democratic revision will be impossible.

The Republicans in the Senate will have only a majority of eight, and if not divided against itself.

The Democrats of the House have determined to act fairly toward the reciprocity agreement and early action is expected upon it.
