CANADA TO PUSH PLANS TO BRING OUT SETTLERS

Hon. J. A. Robb Announces Government To Follow More Aggressive Policy.

CONDITIONS IMPROVE

Investigations Prove West and East Will Support More Families.

Canadian Press Despatch Ottawa, Dec. 21.—Canada will carry on an aggressive immigration policy in 1925, along the lines of her requirements, Hon, J. A. Robb, minister of immigration, informs the Canadian Press in an interview which held much that is optimistic for the success of the government's immigration policy in Europe.

The deputy minister of immigration and colonization, W. J. Egan, has returned from a tour of British and continental Europe, during which preliminary arrangements were made treasurer and controller of finance for the establishment of new Can-adian offices at the best points of vantage in the British Isles, convantage in the British Isles, connected by a new system of co-operation and the substitution for old MDNGHT WASSES methods of an up-to-date plan to canvass the most desirable class of immigrants. Continental Europe was also canvassed by Mr. Egan with en-couraging results.

also canvassed by Mr. Egan with encorouraging results.

Refutes Claims.

In spite of claims which have been made that conditions in Canada did not warrant an enlarged program of immigration, Mr. Robb is satisfied, from his own knowledge of conditions, that there is imprevement in conditions in western and eastern Canada and ample justification for more vigorous colonization program Under the program 3,000 British agricultural families are to be brought, with the assistance of the imperial government, to Canada, will be completed in two years instead of three years, as originally planned and at least 1,200 families of this number will probably be settled in Canada next year.

The immigration of northern Europeans is the chief objective of the new policy. With lessened restrictions on nationals of the Scandinavian countries an increased influx from Sweden, Norway and Denmark is expected. Switzerland has a distinct leaning, Mr. Robb says, towards placing some of its surplus population in Canada.

A revival of interest in Canada is noted in the Irish Free State, where tor years political conditions prefor or years political conditions prefor years political conditions prefore the care of the conditions of the Scandinavian countries an increased influx from Sweden, Norway and Denmark is expected. being drawn up for the 19 teams competing.

Through the generosity of the public utilities commission the league is to have the use of the playground hockey cushions on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 4 to o'clock and on Saturday mornings free of charge.

The supervisor of the playgrounds, Gerald N. Goodman, is co-operating with Dr. F. Bryant, principal of Lord Roberts school, who is superintending the drawing up of the schedules for the four groups, and the other principals as to referees, etc.

The league will compete for the Eddie McKay memorial cup, won last year by the Boyle Memorial school team.

PAVING OPERATIONS

Between eight and 10 inches is reported on the crown of unpayed city it and accept it?"

Between eight and 10 inches is reported on the crown of unpaved city streets and is offering some difficulty wher sewers are under construction. In some places the route of new sewers is being staked out and the frost-hardened road top is chipped up with the aid of an air compressor.

Strangely enough, the center of the road where the earth is packed and pounded by constant traffic proves least immune from frost. In the layman's mind it would appear that the least immune from frost. In the layman's mind it would appear that the soil being less porous and hardest would be least susceptible to frost but city workmen have not found it so. At the sides of city streets where curbs are run, the frost has penetrated to less than half the depth that is noticed on the crown of the road.

wonderful of mysteries, altered the entire trend of human history. All the incidents in the Old Testament the incidents in the Old Testament point unmistakably to the coming of the Messlah. All history subsequent to Christ's birth points back to the incarnation and has been governed by it. But for the incarnation, the world's viewpoint on the march of events in the past 2,000 years would be only a jumbled mass of materialistic facts and phenomena.

Such are the contentions of Rt. Rev. Mons. D. O'Connor, V. G., brought out in a stirring sermon at St Mary's church last night, given in Mons. O'Connor took his text from St John, "And the word was made flesh and dwelt amongst us." Ad-vent, he explained, was a time set aside to commemorate in a special way the 4,000-year period that elapsed between the fall of humanity through the sin of our first parents and the coming of the Re-deemer. That was why the period of

Adam and Eve and all their descendants, with the exception of one, were cut off from heaven, but God in this divine mercy formulated a plan His divine mercy form

Man Finds God.

"Man was to find God in the human nature of the Redeemer," the speaker declared, "but in that nature there dwelt a divine personality which was dwelt a divine personality which was accessible through the human nature like unto ours..
