New York, Feb. 26.-The Herald has a despatch from San Juan, Porto Rico, which says:—Governor-General Davis insists upon his opinion on the subject of Porto Rican trade given in his testimony before the Senate and House committees that Porto Ricans have as good moral right to enjoy trade privileges as the Hawaiians. Prominent persons believe the distressing financial situation calls for speedy action by the Government. The pro-posed 25 per cent. tariff is considered unjust and a denial of constitutional rights. Business is at a standstill. Exports and imports are paralyzed
