Douglstown, Que.

A clear cold, descended over here with the passing of the most severe snow-storm and blizzard that this place has experienced this winter.

The storm broke early on Thursday driven by a high wind and continued unabated for almost 24 hours.

The weather-man predicted that it certainly did.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Baird are receiving congratulations of their friends upon the arrival at their home of a bouncing baby boy.

The Douglstown friends of Mrs. Lionel Leggo of New Carlisle (nee Rena Assel) extend to her their deepest sympathy in the death of her mother Mrs. J. W. Assel, who died at that place sometime ago.

Mr. Myles who is a brother of our beloved parish-priest has during his two years stay with us (where he carried on a grocery store) endeared himself to everyone. His witty remarks and devotion to duty made him a congenial companion in the community. St. Patrick's men's choir of which he has been a faithful leader will greatly miss his beautiful singing.
