

KING MILAN'S MARCH.

What an Old Street Car Driver Said About the Company's New Regulation. The world, speaking by an old street car driver yesterday said, "What are the men kicking about?"

Well, said he, it's just this. We wanted to form a union to help each other in securing justice. We don't want better pay or shorter hours so much as fairness.

A man is asked for the slightest thing, and hasn't a chance to justify himself. A driver was discharged the other day for selling a ticket for some labor organization.

It was thought that he was selling a ticket for something else. He had no chance to say a word for himself. And if we had a union, we could stand by each other and secure justice.

Besides the company would benefit by it, because they would then have only the best men. No non-union men would be employed, and the men fellows who are employed now would have to join the union.

But, said the World, what is this declaration you had to sign? The union would not join or form anything in the shape of a labor organization while in the company's employ.

That is done to check your scheme! Certainly it was. Some fellows spied on us and gave the whole thing away. But you were not obliged to sign the book.

Oh, yes, we were; it was either sign or don't take your car out last Saturday morning. The superintendent stated the other day that it was not compulsory.

Well, just what, Franklin said himself, in answer to the question, that either they must sign or they could not take the car out.

The Balkan conference opens among the powers on the 6th. The treaty of Berlin is nominally maintained; that Roumelia and Bulgaria be kept separate, but be in a permanent union.

An Abolitionist Loses His Head. He suggests that his hearers might as well cheer for Mr. B. as for the G.O.M.

London, Nov. 5.—Archdeacon George A. Denison, M.A., of Taunton, in an election speech last evening said: "I have known Mr. Gladstone forty-five years, but I would not trust him with a brass farthing."

Ladies' Tweed and Cloth Hats. Ladies' Tweed and Cloth Hats, $5.00 and $7.50, all sizes in stock at Pettley's.

The Reorganized Railway Pool. NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—A special meeting of the passenger and freight agents, presided over by the president of the trunk lines was held today to ratify the project of the reorganized pool which the executive committee have been preparing for weeks past.

City of Mexico, Nov. 5.—A resolution proposing Ex-President Gonzalez's nomination in office, presented by the opposition, has been rejected by Congress.

London, Nov. 5.—Mr. Parnell has protested against the selection of Philip Callan, member of parliament for Louth, by the nationalists as their candidate at the coming parliamentary elections.

London, Nov. 5.—The Marquis of Hatfield, in a speech at the opening of the Reform club in this city today, said an offensive and defensive alliance existed between the Tories and the Liberals.

London, Nov. 5.—Richard Webster, attorney-general, today finished his address to the jury in the trial of the defendants in the Armstrong abduction.

London, Nov. 5.—The Marquis of Hatfield, in a speech at the opening of the Reform club in this city today, said an offensive and defensive alliance existed between the Tories and the Liberals.

London, Nov. 5.—Richard Webster, attorney-general, today finished his address to the jury in the trial of the defendants in the Armstrong abduction.

London, Nov. 5.—The Marquis of Hatfield, in a speech at the opening of the Reform club in this city today, said an offensive and defensive alliance existed between the Tories and the Liberals.

London, Nov. 5.—Richard Webster, attorney-general, today finished his address to the jury in the trial of the defendants in the Armstrong abduction.

London, Nov. 5.—The Marquis of Hatfield, in a speech at the opening of the Reform club in this city today, said an offensive and defensive alliance existed between the Tories and the Liberals.

London, Nov. 5.—Richard Webster, attorney-general, today finished his address to the jury in the trial of the defendants in the Armstrong abduction.

London, Nov. 5.—The Marquis of Hatfield, in a speech at the opening of the Reform club in this city today, said an offensive and defensive alliance existed between the Tories and the Liberals.

London, Nov. 5.—Richard Webster, attorney-general, today finished his address to the jury in the trial of the defendants in the Armstrong abduction.

London, Nov. 5.—The Marquis of Hatfield, in a speech at the opening of the Reform club in this city today, said an offensive and defensive alliance existed between the Tories and the Liberals.

London, Nov. 5.—Richard Webster, attorney-general, today finished his address to the jury in the trial of the defendants in the Armstrong abduction.

London, Nov. 5.—The Marquis of Hatfield, in a speech at the opening of the Reform club in this city today, said an offensive and defensive alliance existed between the Tories and the Liberals.

London, Nov. 5.—Richard Webster, attorney-general, today finished his address to the jury in the trial of the defendants in the Armstrong abduction.

London, Nov. 5.—The Marquis of Hatfield, in a speech at the opening of the Reform club in this city today, said an offensive and defensive alliance existed between the Tories and the Liberals.

London, Nov. 5.—Richard Webster, attorney-general, today finished his address to the jury in the trial of the defendants in the Armstrong abduction.

London, Nov. 5.—The Marquis of Hatfield, in a speech at the opening of the Reform club in this city today, said an offensive and defensive alliance existed between the Tories and the Liberals.

London, Nov. 5.—Richard Webster, attorney-general, today finished his address to the jury in the trial of the defendants in the Armstrong abduction.

London, Nov. 5.—The Marquis of Hatfield, in a speech at the opening of the Reform club in this city today, said an offensive and defensive alliance existed between the Tories and the Liberals.

London, Nov. 5.—Richard Webster, attorney-general, today finished his address to the jury in the trial of the defendants in the Armstrong abduction.

London, Nov. 5.—The Marquis of Hatfield, in a speech at the opening of the Reform club in this city today, said an offensive and defensive alliance existed between the Tories and the Liberals.

London, Nov. 5.—Richard Webster, attorney-general, today finished his address to the jury in the trial of the defendants in the Armstrong abduction.

THE DISEASE ABATING.

Upwards of Forty Deaths Still Reported in the City and District on Wednesday. The Case of the Gagnon.

MONTEREAL, Nov. 5.—The official returns of the health office this morning show thirty-six smallpox deaths in the city yesterday—five in Cote St. Louis, four in Ste. Cenevide, and two in St. Henri.

At the civil board of health to-day Dr. Laberge's report of the week ending yesterday showed 49 cases reported and verified.

About 865 houses are reported placarded in the city, whereas there are 700 houses infected.

In the recorder's court to-day, El Gagnon, who has caused the health authorities so much trouble on Roland lane, was charged with resisting and firing upon the police in the execution of their duty.

He was held over to the grand jury in bonds of $200 in himself and two sureties of $100 each.

The case of the Gagnon, who was charged with resisting and firing upon the police in the execution of their duty, was held over to the grand jury in bonds of $200 in himself and two sureties of $100 each.

An Attack on Mayor Beaudry. MONTREAL, Nov. 5.—Le Monde publishes this evening an exceedingly violent article against Mayor Beaudry for having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital.

It says that by his removal of Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

The article also charges Mayor Beaudry with having removed Gagnon's children to the almshouse hospital, and that he is responsible for the death of Gagnon's child by his barbarous and inhuman conduct.

PARLIAMENT STREET OUTRAGE.

The Police Court was crowded yesterday, during the trial of the alleged perpetrators of the Parliament street outrage. The prisoners, Richard Stone, Charles Masch, Thomas Evans, Charles Crozier and George Stone, were charged with having on Oct. 31 feloniously entered Trinity medical school and taken therefrom three anatomical subjects.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

The case was heard by Judge Dugas, who sentenced the prisoners to the penitentiary for a term of six months each, with hard labor.

GARRISON CREEK SEWER.

Another lively day at the Board of Works—Contractor Godson's Refusal to Abandon Expended on the Contract.

A special meeting of the board of works was held yesterday afternoon, to consider the Garrison creek sewer question. The letter from Mr. Godson's solicitors, which was missing at Monday night's council meeting had turned up since, and it was considered this letter that the meeting was called.

There were present Chairman Carlyle, Ald. Steiner, Hastings, Jones, Woods, Franklin, Baxter, Hunter, Allan, Verral, and Mr. Manning. Mr. Godson and Solicitor Neville were also present.

The letter was produced, and read as follows: "We desire to call the attention of the council to the fact that the works committee has passed a resolution to prevent Mr. Godson from receiving $2000 of the amount of the engineer's last progress certificate, as they claim that there are several defects in the sewer."

The works committee also recommended that the caretakers of the sewer be paid at the rate of $100 per month, and that the caretaker of Mabel school be paid $2 per month for each additional room; and in the event of an additional school room being added the caretaker be paid $2 per month for each additional room; and that the caretaker of Mabel school be paid $2 per month for each additional room.

The report of the school management committee recommended that Miss Kate Scarlett be transferred from the junior fourth book class, Walsley school, to the senior third book class, Deffern school, and that she be paid according to the grade of that class, and Miss Kate Gray be promoted from the senior third book class, Deffern school, to the junior fourth book class, Walsley school.

The committee on printing and supplies reported that in accordance with instructions from the board they had advertised for tenders for steam heating apparatus for Bolton avenue school, and had received six tenders. The board was unable to elicit from the members of the committee present which tender was in reality the lowest.

After much discussion the matter was referred back to the committee with instructions to make it an important question clear, and if necessary to advertise for new tenders.

Trustee Ogden thought it remarkable strange that not a member of the printing and supplies committee could give an intelligible explanation of the report. He then went on to say that he had heard numerous complaints about Bolton avenue school, to the effect that the work being done on the sewer was of poor quality. He had himself visited the site and he had no hesitation in saying that the school was "conceived in corruption," that the contractor had been bribed to do the work, and that the school would bring disaster and disgrace to the board.

Several of the members of the board, and members of the press, who were present, expressed their indignation at the language, and the chairman poured oil on the troubled waters.

The report of the committee on night school management was adopted. The report of J. W. Mustard, head master of the Mabel street night school, be accepted, and that the school be paid $2 per month for each additional room.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

The inspector's report for October showed that the registered attendance for the month was 18,880, and the average attendance 12,755. The average attendance had been reduced by sickness, resulting from the general vaccination of the scholars.

THE COUNTY JUDGE WILL INVESTIGATE THE CASE.

Another lively day at the Board of Works—Contractor Godson's Refusal to Abandon Expended on the Contract.

A special meeting of the board of works was held yesterday afternoon, to consider the Garrison creek sewer question. The letter from Mr. Godson's solicitors, which was missing at Monday night's council meeting had turned up since, and it was considered this letter that the meeting was called.

There were present Chairman Carlyle, Ald. Steiner, Hastings, Jones, Woods, Franklin, Baxter, Hunter, Allan, Verral, and Mr. Manning. Mr. Godson and Solicitor Neville were also present.

The letter was produced, and read as follows: "We desire to call the attention of the council to the fact that the works committee has passed a resolution to prevent Mr. Godson from receiving $2000 of the amount of the engineer's last progress certificate, as they claim that there are several defects in the sewer."

The works committee also recommended that the caretakers of the sewer be paid at the rate of $100 per month, and that the caretaker of Mabel school be paid $2 per month for each additional room; and in the event of an additional school room being added the caretaker be paid $2 per month for each additional room.

The report of the school management committee recommended that Miss Kate Scarlett be transferred from the junior fourth book class, Walsley school, to the senior third book class, Deffern school, and that she be paid according to the grade of that class, and Miss Kate Gray be promoted from the senior third book class, Deffern school, to the junior fourth book class, Walsley school.

The committee on printing and supplies reported that in accordance with instructions from the board they had advertised for tenders for steam heating apparatus for Bolton avenue school, and had received six tenders. The board was unable to elicit from the members of the committee present which tender was in reality the lowest.

After much discussion the matter was referred back to the committee with instructions to make it an important question clear, and if necessary to advertise for new tenders.

Trustee Ogden thought it remarkable strange that not a member of the printing and supplies committee could give an intelligible explanation of the report. He then went on to say that he had heard numerous complaints