

CONTENTS.

	Page
ness—The Iroquois order the baptized to leave Gnadenhutten—Beginning of the Indian war—Massacre on the Mahony—False accusations against the Brethren—Their faith, courage, and watchfulness—Bethlehem a place of refuge—Settlement of Nain—Post's journey to the Ohio—Michael the Indian	120
CHAP. VIII.—John Papunhank—Settlement of Wechquetank—Success of the Gospel in Nain—Death of Tadeuskund—Zeisberger visits Mackwihilusing	141
CHAP. IX.—Renewal of the Indian War—Murder of Zachary—Danger of the settlements—Wechquetank forsaken—The Indians ordered to Philadelphia—Massacre at Canestoga—The Indians sent to the army—Return to Philadelphia—Danger from the rioters—Their sufferings in the barracks—Trial and acquittal of Renatus—Journey of the Indians to Macwhihilusing	149
CHAP. X.—Settlement of Friedenshutten—Zeisberger's journey to the Ohio—Goshgoshunk—Indian preachers—Wangomen—Remarkable preservation of the missionaries—Violent opposition—Sunday Indians	164
CHAP. XI.—Visit to Chechshequannink—Iroquois Chiefs—Mission at Goshgoshunk—At Lawunakhanek—The Captain Glikkikan—The Chief Allemewi—Treachery of the Iroquois—War between the Cherokees and Sennekas—Settlement of Friedenstadt—Baptism of Glikkikan	176
CHAP. XII.—Invitation to the Ohio—Papunhank accused of poisoning—Emetics—Danger of the missionaries—Settlement of Shonbrun—Emigration from Friedenshutten and Chechshequannink—Gnadenhutten built—Zeisberger visits the Shawanose—Rules and Orders	189
CHAP. XIII.—The congregation at Friedenstadt emigrates to the Muskingum—Indian war—Captain White Eyes—The Chief Netawatwees—Settlement of Lichtenau—Delaware Reading and Spelling Book	202
CHAP. XIV.—War between the English and Americans—Danger of the mission—Apostasy of some of the baptized—Shonbrun deserted—Huron warriors at Lichtenau—Progress of the Gospel	212
CHAP. XV.—Heckewelder's journey to Goshachgunk—Danger of the missionaries—Remarkable escape of Zeisberger—Settlement of Salem—Visits from the heathen—Death of Captain White Eyes—Br. Grube's visitation—Arrangement of the settlements	221