

CONTENTS

OF

VOL. XIII.

PART III.—BOOK I.

	Page.
CHAP. IV. SECT. XVII. A particular Description of the Island of Otaheite; its Produce and Inhabitants; their Dress, Habitation, Food, Domestic Life and Amusements,	1
SECT. XVIII. Of the Manufactures, Boats, and Navigation of Otaheite,	29
XIX. Of the Division of Time at Otaheite; Numeration, Computation of Distance, Language, Diseases, Disposal of the Dead, Religion, War, Weapons, and Government; with some general Observations for the Use of future Navigators,	44
XX. Description of the several Islands in the Neighbourhood of Otaheite, with various Incidents; a Dramatic Entertainment; and many Particulars relative to the Customs and Manners of the Inhabitants,	73
XXI. The Passage from Oteroah to New Zealand; Incidents which happened in going ashore there, and while the Ship lay in Poverty Bay,	99

3068743