
SUNDAY-SCHOOL LESSONS, FOURTH QUARTER.

LESSON 10.] CHRIST'S HUMILITY AND EXALTATION. [DEC. 5.]

Philippians 2. 1-11.

GOLDEN TEXT.—Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus.—Phil. 2. 5.

MEMORY VERSES, 5-8.—Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men:

And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

To the folks at home: Please help the little folks to learn this lesson.

LESSON STORY.

Paul teaches the Philippians, and us, that the law of Christ's kingdom is love. That love will make us lowly, loving and unselfish, so that we will esteem others better than ourselves. Christ, our master, had such a mind—lowly, loving, peaceable. He showed his lowly mind by taking the form of a servant and being made in the likeness of man. He showed his loving mind by dying on the cross for us. He showed his peaceable mind by bearing patiently the cruel treatment of his enemies. His lowliness exalted him, and now his name is above every name. At that great name every knee shall yet bow and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord of all.

LESSON QUESTIONS.

1. What is the law of Christ's kingdom?

Love.

2. What kind of a mind had Jesus?

A lowly, loving and peaceable mind.

3. How did he show his lowly mind?

By becoming a servant and being made in the likeness of man.
