

keep it alive, believing that the cause in North Carolina demands such a publication. But, after publishing it four years, it has now failed for want of adequate patronage. Although there are nearly three thousand Disciples in the State, five hundred of these could not be induced to pay for a monthly periodical devoted to their interests. We shall not stop to speak of the cause, but will remark in passing, that the editor has sacrificed more than all the Disciples in the State put together, to keep up the "Preacher." He does not feel it his duty to do more, hence the paper is discontinued.

"The Home,"—a well developed, frank, earnest, and virtuous Magazine for the Wife, the Mother, the Daughter, and the Sister within the family circle. It is published at Buffalo, N. Y., and edited by Mrs. Aery. Only $2 per year.

"The Christian Sentinel:" Peoria, Illinois: by O. A. Burgess, I. N. Carman, and J. Lindsey. This is a prettily printed monthly, of Thirty-two pages, at One Dollar per volume of twelve Numbers. We have only seen the first three Nos. for the current year, but from these we must judge that the work ministers good to its readers.

"The Canadian Independent: a Semi-Monthly sheet, published by the Congregationalists of Canada. It hails from Toronto, and is a respectable paper. We shall be pleased to exchange with it. Only $1 per year. Address G. E. Thomas, Toronto.

"The Golden Rule:" New York: D. F. Newton, editor. This is a spicy, racy, hearty, perpendicular monthly, which pleads with whole-hearted earnestness for temperance, pure literature, pure spirituality, and unfeigned honesty and simplicity in every department of human action. It is only fifty cents a-year, or five copies to one address for two dollars. The address is, D. F. Newton, 181 William st., New York.

"The Bible Union Reporter, Monthly; containing the English Scriptures Revised, and important intelligence relating to the progress of pure versions of the word of God," has for many months been regular in its visits. The revision of the Epistle to the Hebrews is given in the Number for June. We must find time and room shortly to give our readers an article pertaining to sundry portions of the revised version of the scriptures by the Bible Union; but in the meantime, the following quotation from an article in the Reporter, copied from the New York Chronicle, relative to the Final Revision Committee, will be perused with marked interest:

"It will be recollected that it was resolved, at the annual meeting
