SABBATH SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY IN TORONTO.

The Anniversary of the Wesleyan Sabbath Schools in the East Circuit, took place during the week commencing July 11th. Sermons were preached on Sabbath in both the churches of the circuit, Adelaide Street, and Yorkville. The meeting was held in Adelaide Street Church on Tuesday evening. From some cause the congregation was not so large as expected, or as it has usually been on such occasions. The Secretary read a very interesting Report, embracing an account of the two schools in the city, the Adelaide Street, and the Terauley Street Schools. We give some extracts from the Report.

the average number of Teachers in Adelaide Street School has been 15, and the average attendance of children, until the last quarter, had been 71; and the number of verses recited, 17,561. Our friends are aware, that for the past four months, as the room was required for the special services and prayer-meetings during the revival, the school has been irregular, and for a time, closed. It has again opened under the most favourable circumstances, and the attendance has considerably increased; and the Officers and Teachers confidently look forward to the time, they hope not far distant, when the enlarged room will be a place too strait for them."

The Terauley Street School numbers ten teachers, and an average attendance of sixty scholars. Both of these schools have shared in the gracious revival which has
