on individual inclination. Domestic privations are often submitted to, which the unselfish most admire; and where luxuries or superfluities are denied for this purpose a blessing is safe to rest on what remains. This is the highest sentiment which can inspire the breast. Among all the virtues which enoble the humanity of our Divine Master this was the grandest; and then what can be more touchingly indicative of genuine, generous affection than the adoption of such a course? Whatever is contained in our policy is secured for the benefit of others. It is a provision for your nearest and dearest, when you can provide for them no longer. It is to ward off the horrors of poverty, and, humanly speaking, to render destitution impossible. To vindicate the neglect of such a precaution on the plea of plenty while living cannot be admitted. On the contrary, the more comfortably the family are kept, the greater the cruelty of leaving them to the cold charity of an unfeeling world. The greener the pasture now the more dreary will the desert be then. (Applause.) My lord and gentlemen, permit me to remark, in recommending such disinterested foresight, such exercises of self-denial, and of solicitous love, that such displays of a moral nature cannot go without their reward. Conscience will give it now, and the respect of your neighbor will attend it. The testimony of the inward approver will smooth the pillow of death, and assuredly it cannot but help our preparation to meet that Great and Benificent Being of whom it is written that, "He relieveth the fatherless and widow." On these accounts, and with this aspect of the case before us, let me invite all—but especially invite young men, according to their position and ability, to cast in their lot with those who are laying up a good store against the time to come, whereby their memories will be blessed by those they may leave behind them. (Applause.)

EAST INDIA HEMP,

And what we know about it.

Instead of devoting a column to the merits of this strange and wonderful plant, we remain silent and let it speak for itself through other lips than ours, believing that those who have suffered most can better tell the story. We will here quote word for word from letters recently received, simply adding our testimony to the rest in saying that when this plant is properly prepared, we know that it and will break up a fresh cold in twenty-four hours:

Positively Cures Consumption,

Liverpool, Batch Meadows, Queen's Co.,

Nov. 20th, August 27th, 1874.

—: Please send $20 worth of India Hemp. I cannot tell you with pen the great good this has done me. I was as weak as a cat; could hardly stand on my legs; no appetite; constant pain in my lungs; the doctor had given me up, and I saw death before my eyes. But this medicine has raised me to the enjoyment of life and health. I can now walk two and three miles without fatigue; have a good appetite; am free from pain; sleep soundly, and am doing well. I have no fears of consumption now.

THOMAS J. GARRATT.

Friends CHADDOCK & Co.:

Mr. Findlay Barker, who was so low with Consumption, and only weighed one hundred and twenty-five pounds when he commenced to take your medicine, now weighs one hundred and eighty-four pounds, and says he feels as well as he ever did in his life.

Yours truly,

ROBT. GOX.

The following confirms the above, seven years letter

Thornton, Boone Co., Ind., Jan. 30, 1874.

I have tried so much that I have lost all confidence in Patent Medicines, and would not have sent for your remedy, only I saw in your testimonials that of Robt. Cox in the case of Findlay Barker, with whom I am personally acquainted, and I know that Mr. Barker WAS CURED OF CONSUMPTION, and is now well and hearty. I am also acquainted with Robert Cox, and feel that Cannabis ought to do as much for me as it did for Barker.

Yours in faith,

JOHN B. WETHERLAND.

Sweet Valley, Luzerne Co., Pa., April 20, 1874.

I have used your Cannabis India Syrup for the last ten years with astonishing success in ACUTE and chronic PULMONARY AFFECTIONS, and I believe it has no equal for such diseases.

Dr. J. N. DAVENPORT.

Deep River, Poweshieck, Iowa, Jan. 3, 1874.

I have just seen your advertisement in my paper. I know all about the Cannabis India. Fifteen years ago it cured my daughter of the ASTHMA; she had it very bad for several years, but was perfectly cured.
