TO OTVR READERS.

The initial number of the Noia Scotia Ilidesthated is before yon.
Its purpose can easily be scen by a perussl of its pages.
It will almays contain correct and reliable information in regarel to the mailroad and stenmship lines of Nura Scutia as the schedules through sleeping car sorvice, special rates, stage cunnections, distances, puphation of $p$ rincipal cities, ete, punctuated with apicy bits of selected humorand condenserl information of sarious sorts, description of prominent resorts reached by the different railroad and steamship lines and which can bo recommended as being first el.ass in every respect, will he found from month to month. It is natural to suppose that in connection with such descriptive anatter our readers will aloo bo told the best and quickest route to reach such resorts.

Nova Scotia contains more to interest the human eye than all the world, and therefore can well be called the Lant of Evangelise; The Tourist's Paradiso; Tho Sportsman's Arcadia; Tho Wonderland of Artists, and The Best Climate on the Footstool.

This monthly fill sound its glad titings on the first of each and every month, and will contrin andustiatioss of principal points of interest, also fine half-tong cuts of some of our well known residents and reputable business men.

Rolying on your s ind patronage mo anticipate a long and happy existence.
$\mathcal{A}$ NEW JDEA.
A new ider has come to town. And come, I know, to stay ;
You hear it too from every mouth As you homeward foond your way.
Tho legend strange perhaps you think, And one that is quite new,
Buk when you know just what it is, And what it will do for you,
You'll try as others have. And say with all the rest
That the columns of Nova Scotia Illustrated monthly For advertisiag are the test.
What does it do ? List unto mo And its merit I'll oxplain.
It provents keeping old atoct in trade, Is fond for nerre and brain.
For homo reading it has its sway, And adds to all things good,
There's nothing in this forld compares
With Nora Scotia Mllustrated for advertising wares.
Of testimonials thero's no lsok, And scionco lends its aid
In praising nigh the virtues,
But the hulf biss Nió been ssid.
Of what a boon and pricoless treasurr
Is the monthly of whose praiso I sing,
For with tho constant use of its colamns
Will make jomr poolrots with money ring.

Are You A Good Guesser?

HIS MONTHLY is essentially a dourmal of Travel and its readers travellers, or hope to bo, hence the mamer of prizes to be offered to its subscribers should in the very nature of things be tickets of travel. It is therefore detormined to offer the following FREE:-
One First Class Ticket Halifax to Havana, Suba, and Return by way of New York aud Tampa, Florida, Atlantic Coast Line, to be oiven to the person who guesses nearest the number of words the August issue, 1890, will contain, providing it is a paid subscriver for the rerm of one year.
