NEW BOOKS IN PRESS.

THE SUBSCRIBERS inke great pleasure in announcing to the Catholic Public, that they have made arrangements with Mossrs. Burns & Lambert, the English Publishers, for duplicate setts of the Stereotype plates of the following works:—

THE POPULAR LIBRARY

Of History, Biography, Fiction, and Miscellaneous Literature, a series of works by some of the most eminent writers of the day; edited by Messrs. Capes, Northcote, and Thomp-

The Popular Library is intended to supply a desideratum which has long been felt, by providing at a cheap rate a series of instructive and entertaining publications, suited for general of instructive and emeritaring prohecations, since for general use, written expressly for the purpose, and adapted in all respects to the circumstances of the present day. It is intended that the style of the works shall be such as to engage the attention of young and old, and of all classes of readers while the subjects will be so varied as to render the series equally acceptable for Home use, Educational purposes, or railway reading.

The following are some of the subjects which it is proposed to include in the Popular Library, though the volumes will not necessarily be issued in the order here given. A large portion of the series will also be devoted to works of Fiction portion of the series will also be devoted to works of Fiction and Entertaining Literature generally, which will be interspersed with the more solid publications here named:—Fabiola: a tale of the Catacombs; by His Eminence Cardinal Wiseman. 12 mo, 400 pages, muslin, 3s 9d.

Life of St. Frances of Rome; by Lady Georgina Fullarton, 2s 6d.

ES 00.

Heroines of Charity; with preface by Aubrey de Vere, 2s 6d.

Catholic Legends and Stories, 2s 6d.

The Witch of Melton Hill; a Tale; by the author of Mount St. Laurence, 2s 6d.

The following works are in immediate preparation, and will be completed in one Volume :---

A Popular Modern History; by Mathew Bridges, Esq.—Christian Missions—Japan, &c.; by Miss Cadell.—St. Dominic and the Dominicans.—St. Francis and the Franciscans.—St. Alphonsus and the Redemptorists; by J. M. Capes.—Blessed Paul of the Cross and the Passionists.—St. Francis of Blessed Paul of the Cross and the Passionists.—St. Francis of Sales; by R. Ormsby.—St. Ignatius and the Jesuits — Eminent Men—Cardinal Ximenes, &c.—Bonneval; a Tale of Paris in 1643.—A Tale of the Charterhouse in the time of Henry viii.—The Witch of Melton Hill; a Tale.—Remniscences of my Mother; or Tales of the Reign of Terror, by Madame Woilles, author of the Orphan of Moscow. Translated from the French by Mrs. J. Sadlier.—Picture of Christian Heroism; with preface by the Rev. Dr. Manning.

The greatest want of the present day is books combining instruction and amusement, which Catholic Parents can safely place in the hands of their children. It now rests with the place in the hands of their children. It now rests with the Catholic public, whether that want shall be supplied or not. We intend to issue the first volume of the Popular Library on the 15th of February, and will continue to issue a volume every month, for one year at least, and if we are only seconded in our efforts, we will continue the Series for years to come. But it depends entirely on the encouragement we receive. One thing is certain, that it is the duty of Catholics to encourage a project like this; by doing so they will enable us to multiply useful and entertaining books at a moderate price.

THE GREATEST MEDICAL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE

MR. KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY,

HAS discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures EVERY KIND OF HUMOR, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over cleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possessica over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most deperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure sait rheum. Three to four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum. Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula. A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken. Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures, and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There are no if nor ands, hums nor ha's about it suiting some cases but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massach.

Where the body is sound it works quite easy; but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings, but you must not be alarmed; they always disappear from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from 1; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone; you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomings of it that ever man listened to. ums of it that ever man listened to.

"During a visit to Glengary, I fell in with your Medical discovery, and used three bottles for the cure of Erysipalus, which had for years afflicted my face, nose and upper lip. I perceive that I experience great benefit from the use of it; but being obliged to return to this place in a hurry, I could not provide any more of the Medicine. I made different apparis procure any more of the Medicine. I made difigent enquiry for it in this section of the country, but could find none of it.
