A Torga Mission.—On the Island of Tongs, our missionaries have baptized, within the last year, nearly 400 Heathens. In the two years, that Father Recession has spent at Tuo, he has baptized more than 200 natives, including the head chief.—New Orleans Catholic Standard.

MOUNTHOPE INSTITUTE FOR YOUNG LADIES,

DNDER TEN DIRECTION OF LADIES OF THE SACRED HEART, LONDON, C. W.

TEIS Institution, situated in a healthy and agreeable location, and favored by the patronage of His Lordship the Bishop of London, will be opened on the first Monday of September, 1857.

In its plan of Literary and Scientific Studies, it will combine every advantage that can be derived from an intelligent and conscientious instruction in the various branches of learning becoming their sex. Facility will be offered for the acquisition of those Ornamental Arts and Sciences, which are considered requisite in a finished education; while pro-priety of Deportment, Personal Neatness, and the principles of Morality will form subjects of particular assiduity. The Health of the Pupils will also be an object of peculiar vigilance, and in case of sickness, they will be treated with maternal solicitude.

The knowledge of Religion and of its duties will receive that attention which its importance demands. as the primary end of all true Education, and hence will form the basis of every class and department. Differences of religious tenets will not be an obstacle to the admission of Pupils, provided they be willing to conform to the general Regulations of the Institate.

Review. "Whoever wishes to read one of the most passionate and pathetic novels in English literature will an Intake with him, during the summer vacation. The Si oo Collegians, by Gerald Griffin. The picture of Irish character and manners a half a century since in The Collegians, is masterly, and the power with which the fond, impetuous, passionate, thoroughly Celtic nature of Hardress Cregan is drawn, evinces rare genius. Griffin died young, but this one story, if nothing else of his, will surely live among the very best novels of the time. It is full of incident, and an absorbing interest allures the reader to the end, and leaves him with a melted heart and moistened eye." -Putnam's Monthly.

"We have now before us four volumes, the commencement of a complete edition of Gerald Griffin's works, embracing the 'Collegians' and the first series of his 'Munster Tales.' The nationality of these tales, and the genius of the author in depicting the Circles of the Living Rosery, mastered on card paper, per dozen, as cents on card paper, per dozen, as cents the following of Christ, with Prayers and Reflections (new), at from as cents to $2.50 which the series is produced is highly creditable to the Graces of Mary; or, Devotions for the Month of the enterprise of the American publishers, and we are free to say that the volumes are worthy of being placed in our libraries, public or private, alongside of Irving, Cooper, or Scott."—Hual's Merchant's Magazine.
