

advice from Commonwealth members on how to organize a bid and budget for the Games;

(iv) Establish a hosting training programme to allow games organizers to gain hosting experience by participating in the organization of other Games. We will specifically encourage the Victoria Games Council to undertake this activity in connection with the organization of the 1994 Commonwealth Games.