	Strongly Agree	Somewhat Agree	Somewhat Disagree	Strongly Disagree	(DK/NS)
__ k. Skills training will not do much to help people get jobs, since there are so few jobs around	1	2	3	4	9
__ l. In order to encourage welfare recipients to get off welfare, the government should allow them to re-train while still receiving their welfare payments	1	2	3	4	9
__ m. Because of global economic restructuring, many of the jobs being lost now will not come back, even with an economic recovery	1	2	3	4	9

Q13K

Q13M

END ROTATION

14. Who do you see as having the greatest responsibility for helping Canadians adjust that is to adapt to changes in the global economy? (READ AND ROTATE LIST)

```
        __ The federal government...............1
        __ The provincial governments..........2
        __ Businesses..........................3
        __ Unions..............................4
           (Other)............................8
           (DK/NS)............................9
```
Q14

15a. Do you feel that the federal government is doing a very good job, a good job, a poor job, or a very poor job in helping Canadians adjust to changes in the global economy?

```
        A very good job.....................1
        A good job..........................2
        A poor job..........................3
        A very poor job.....................4
        (DK/NS).............................9
```
Q15A

15b. And why do you say that? (PROBE)

_____   Q15BA

_____   ↓

_____   Q15BC

16. Some people say that the federal government should be concentrating on developing the skills of Canadian workers, in order to provide for Canada's long-term economic future.

Other people say that given the current economic situation, we need less emphasis on training and more on short-term measures to get people back to work.
Which point of view is closest to your own?

```
        Long-term...................1
        Short-term..................2
        (DK/NS).....................9
```
Q16