

Notes for a Statement by the Secretary of State for External Affairs
The Honourable Mitchell Sharp to the
Canadian Political Science Association
McGill University, June 4, 1972

Mr. Chairman,

You have been kind enough to give me the first word on Canadian-American relations this evening. I doubt if anyone present will have the last - not even my distinguished colleagues, Professors Thompson, Peitchinis and Redekop; for in interest and importance, the subject is inexhaustible. You have also been good enough to give me a double allotment of time. I shall use it for a double purpose. First, I shall review briefly some of the recent developments in Canadian-American relations, in order to get them on record
