

Hon. J. A. GLEN (Minister of Mines and Resources): Mr. Speaker, since it is almost eleven o'clock I move the adjournment of the debate.

Mr. GRAYDON: Just say you will adopt it and we will get it through now.

Mr. GLEN: If the house will permit me to go on after eleven o'clock I shall be glad to proceed now.

An hon. MEMBER: No.

Motion agreed to and debate adjourned.

On motion of Mr. Mackenzie the house adjourned at 10.55 p.m.

Friday, March 29, 1946.

The house met at three o'clock.

OFFICIAL SECRETS ACT

TABLING OF THIRD INTERIM REPORT OF ROYAL COMMISSION

Right Hon. W. L. MACKENZIE KING (Prime Minister): Perhaps the house will allow me to table immediately copies in English of the third interim report of the royal commission established under order in council P.C. 411 of February 5, 1946. It is expected that copies of the report in French will be available for tabling shortly.

I may inform the house that appropriate action is being taken in accordance with the report in respect of such persons as are designated therein.

(On the orders of the day):

Mr. GRAYDON: I believe the tabling of the royal commission's third interim report is a matter of sufficient public interest to warrant some further elucidation from the Prime Minister. I take it that the report contains certain names of persons who have been apprehended or who will be charged later as a result of the report. It would be of interest to the house if the names of those persons, and the charges against them, were made public now rather than at the time of publication of the report itself.

Mr. MACKENZIE KING: Is my hon. friend asking for the names of those named in the report I have just tabled?

Mr. GRAYDON: Yes.

Mr. MACKENZIE KING: I can give them to the house. The names are: Eric Adams,

Israel Halperin, Durnford Smith, J. S. Benning, and Squadron Leader F. W. Poland. That is the list.
