

Government Orders

become its hallmark. The people out there know that that is what is happening.

Mr. Iain Angus (Thunder Bay—Atikokan): Mr. Speaker, I am impressed that the hon. member has dared to let me have a minute—a minute—to rebut the charges she has made.

Some Hon. Members: Hear, hear!

Mr. Angus: The hon. member who has just spoken at length saying the same thing over again in order to prevent the New Democratic Party from responding to the charges that she laid in this House about what we did and what we said—

Mr. Deputy Speaker: I have a number of points of order.

[Translation]

By seniority, the hon. member for Saint-Denis comes first.

Mr. Marcel Prud'homme (Saint-Denis): Mr. Speaker, I am absolutely shocked at the hon. member's insinuations about our colleague's intentions. We all know this is highly irregular and against the Standing Orders of this House, and if he would care to rise in the House and apologize—

Mr. Deputy Speaker: I am sorry to interrupt the hon. member, but it being 4.45 p.m., pursuant to order made Tuesday, December 12, 1989, it is my duty to interrupt the proceedings and to put forthwith every question necessary to dispose of the third reading stage of the bill now before the House.

[English]

Is it the pleasure of the House to adopt the motion?

Some Hon. Members: Agreed.

Some Hon. Members: No.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: All those in favour of the motion will please say yea.

Some Hon. Members: Yea.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: All those opposed will please nay.

Some Hon. Members: Nay.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: In my opinion the yeas have it.

And more than five members having risen:

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Call in the members.

The House divided on the motion, which was agreed to on the following division:

(Division No. 157)

YEAS
