

They include:

Monsieur H. Grégoire, professor of Greek and dean of the Faculty of Sciences and Letters, of CAIRO, formerly at Brussels;

Monsieur E. Godineau, headmaster of the Royal College in Mons;

Monsieur L. Goemans, inspector-general of public instruction of the second degree in Belgium;

Monsieur M. Theodoroff, ex-Secretary of State for Commerce and Industry, now president of the Russian National Union in Paris;

Monsieur de Wulf, professor of Philosophy at Harvard University.

...