Associated Board terminated in 1908 or 9, we tried to establish not our own separate examinations, but to get the cooperation of Toronto, as correspondence will show. So far as I remember, the attitude adopted by Toronto at that time was favourable, but it would have meant our virtual disappearance from the scene.

If you require any further information on the matter, I shall be glad to give it to you.

Yours very truly,

H. C. Ferrin

Dean.
